Member Engagement Options

As part of your benefits package, BSR Members with dues of US$15,000 or more may select one of the following engagement options at no extra cost.

Participation in a Collaborative Initiative: BSR's Collaborative Initiatives offer businesses the opportunity to go farther on sustainability challenges with peers and partners within and across industries and sectors. Members may choose to participate in one Collaborative Initiative from a select list at no additional cost or may choose to apply a credit toward additional Collaborative Initiative options. For more information on BSR's Collaborative Initiatives, including objectives and recommended participants, please review this overview.

Issue briefing: Driven by BSR Insights and research, an issue briefing can be tailored to your needs and various audiences. Always includes research material and a 1-hour conversation, in person or virtual, with BSR. The options for an Issue Briefing are:

- Executive Analysis: Customized research and analysis to understand an issue or set of issues facing an industry or company. 1-hour debrief (in person or virtual)
- Executive Benchmark: A high-level comparison of company practices against a group of peers or against industry standards or best practice.
- Executive Board Briefing: ESG and Insights briefing for the executive board, with a facilitated discussion (45 min) by Senior BSR leads
- Future Trends Workshop: Selection of three trends from BSR's Futures Trends library, tailored to the member followed by a trends workshop, exploring how these trends might evolve and their implications for the business and sustainability strategy.

Report review: Led by BSR's global and regional reporting experts, your latest sustainability report (either published or in draft format) will be assessed against a number of criteria, including conciseness, materiality, stakeholder inclusiveness, and general presentation, to help you determine its overall quality, and we will provide recommendations for improvement.

Consulting credit: Many members already engage with BSR on specific advisory services projects. Members can therefore choose to apply a credit toward any project valued at US$30,000 or more.
