

Former Speaker of House Newt Gingrich

Newt Gingrich is an intellectually fearless visionary and historian. He is one of the foremost economic, social, political and security-focused conservative thinkers today. Newt is well known as the architect of the “Contract with America” that led the Republican Party to victory in 1994 by capturing a majority in the United States House of Representatives for the first time in forty years. He was a Republican candidate for president of the United States from 2011 to 2012. Newt Gingrich is a Fox News contributor and the author of thirty-six books, including 16 fiction and nonfiction New York Times best-sellers. His latest number one best-sellers include Trump and the American Future.

Recognized internationally as an expert on world history, military issues, and international affairs, Newt is the longest-serving teacher of the Joint Warfighting course for Major Generals. He also teaches officers from all five services as a Distinguished Visiting Scholar and Professor at the National Defense University and is the longest serving teacher at Capstone.

In addition, Newt served as a Member of the Defense Policy Board. He was a member of the Terrorism Task Force for the Council on Foreign Relations and he co-chaired the Task Force on U.N. Reform, a bipartisan Congressional effort to reform the United Nations. Newt champions innovation and market oriented alternatives to socialism and single payer healthcare. Newt served as an unofficial advisor to President Trump throughout the 2016 elections.

As Chairman of Gingrich 360, Newt and his team advise leading corporations and organizations in healthcare, transportation, financial markets, and defense. His company creates and produces television and digital series, specials and documentaries.
