¹ Pursuant to article 31 of the new data protection regulation for EU institutions and bodies (Regulation (EU) 2018/1725) each controller and processor have to maintain a record of processing activities under its responsibility that contains at least the information listed under that article.

1.2 PURPOSE AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PROCESSING

1.2.1 Purpose

The European Labour Authority (ELA) aims to encourage the highest standards of administration, professional ethics, integrity and independence and identify and disclose, in a transparent and consistent manner, the handling of situations where potential conflicts of interests may arise in order to avoid any conflict between the ELA public duties and any kind of private interest of staff.

Applications for authorisation/declarations concern:

- outside activity for staff in active employment;
- professional activity during leave on personal grounds;
- the activity of staff who have left the Commission (invalidity, pension, end of contract);
- permission to receive a decoration;
- permission to keep a gift;
- the activity of the spouse;
- the publication of articles the subject matter of which relates to the activities of the Union;
- participation in an election campaign;
- conflict of interest declaration upon entry in the service;
- election to public office.

Personal data are linked to requests for authorisation/ethical statements arising from the rights and obligations of officials and other servants of the Union.

The staff member completes his/her application for authorisation/declaration by entering all the necessary information in a declaration form. Authorisation is then either granted or refused, possibly with restrictions imposed by the Appointing Authority, on the basis of information provided by the staff member and any additional information (obtained for example by internet searches concerning the nature of the outside activity) and on the basis of the opinion of line managers.

The different actors in the process are guided by a workflow leading to the Appointing Authority's decision and by explanatory information on the form.

Ethical requests are managed in the Sysper ETHICS module (external activity requests, publication declarations, conflict of interest declarations, spouse's declarations of activity).

However, other ethical requests are managed outside the ETHICS module, using paper forms (declaration of professional activity after leaving the service; declaration of gainful or unpaid occupational activity during invalidity; declaration of publication during leave on personal grounds; award of a decoration; participation in an election campaign; election to public office).

1.2.2 Processing for further purposes

- Archiving in the public interest
- Scientific or historical research purposes
- Statistical purposes

Safeguards in place to ensure data minimisation

- Pseudonymisation
- Any other, specify

1.2.3 Modes of processing

 - b. Databases
 - c. Servers
 - d. Cloud
- 3. External contractor premises

Description:

Personal data in paper format is stored in operational and resources unit of the European Labour Authority.

All data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, uploaded batches of data etc.) are stored either on the servers of the European Labour Authority or of its contractors.

1.2.5 Comments on the processing of the data

ELA HR Team analyses the information collected in order to give an opinion on ethical demand. During the processing, ELA HR Team produces documents containing personal data. For each ethical request, ELA HR Team draws up an internal circulation sheet containing the main elements of the request.

Data stored in Ares or in paper form declarations may also be used for statistical or documentary purposes but only after the personal data have been anonymised.

In application of the purpose limitation principle, there can be no further processing of data in a way that would be incompatible with the original purpose of the collection.

1.8 SECURITY MEASURES

Short summary of overall Technical and Organizational Measures implemented to ensure Information Security:

Description:

All data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, uploaded batches of data etc.) are stored either on the servers of the European Labour Authority or of its contractors.

The European Labour Authority's contractors are bound by a specific contractual clause for any processing operations of personal data on behalf of the European Labour Authority, and by the confidentiality obligations deriving from the General Data Protection Regulation.

In order to protect personal data, the European Labour Authority has put in place a number of technical and organisational measures. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorised persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation
