

PROGRAMME

Public Hearing

Committee on the Internal Market and Consumer Protection
Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs

"The Artificial Intelligence Act"

21 March 2022, 15.45 - 18.45

European Parliament, Room Antall 2Q2, Brussels and with remote participation

The aim of this joint IMCO-LIBE hearing is to address the main issues concerning the legislative proposal on Artificial Intelligence put forward by the Commission on 21 April 2021 and help preparing the Parliament's position.

15.45 - 15.50            Opening remarks

- Ms Maria GRAPINI, IMCO Vice-Chair
- Mr Juan Fernando LÓPEZ AGUILAR, LIBE Chair

15.50 - 17.10            Panel 1: A horizontal approach: Scope and overall purpose of the Artificial Intelligent Act

Speakers (6 minutes each)

- Ms Catelijne Muller, President of ALLAI
- Mr Max Tegmark, President, Future of Life Institute
- Mr Andrea Renda, Senior Research Fellow & Head of Global Governance, Regulation, Innovation & Digital Economy at CEPS

Q&A Session (Members and reactions from experts)

17.10 - 17.20            Short break

17.20 - 18.40            Panel 2: Getting the balance right: risk assessment and handling of high-risk AI systems. A governance fit for the risk assessment based model

Speakers (6 minutes each)

- Stuart Russell, Professor of Computer Science and Smith-Zadeh Professor in Engineering, University of California, Berkeley
- Mr Lukas Klingholz, Division Manager Cloud, GAIA-X & AI at Bitkom
- Ms Sarah Chander, Senior Policy Advisor, EDRI

Q&A Session (Members and reactions from experts)

18.40 - 18.45            Closing remarks