We are Team Rockburn and together we SHINE!

Rockburn Elementary School is located at the entrance to Rockburn Park in Elkridge. The Rockburn staff has always focused on developing positive relationships with children and their families. Caring, connection, engagement, and positive learning choices describe our core values.

At Rockburn, active parent involvement is valued. Our strong and supportive Parent Teacher Association meets monthly to plan events for students, staff, and families.

Our students are expected to follow the Rockburn R's: Respectful, Responsible, and Ready. As a PBIS school, focus on positive behavior assists all students to meet with success. We are Team Rockburn and together we SHINE..

Our staff members are talented, caring, engaged professionals who are willing to go the extra mile for all students. Focus is placed on engaging each student based on individual needs and interests to become active participants as lifelong learners.

Rockburn is a safe place where all are welcome. Our focus is on good citizenship and continuous growth in order to be prepared for a successful future. Rockburn Elementary School builds the foundation for future learning and instills values that carry into adulthood.

Staff, students, parents and community working together make Rockburn a great place to discover and use our individual and collective talents. The resources and support we receive enables us to give our best for children and the community every day. We are Team Rockburn!
