LONG

Chief Sourcing Officer and Head of Sales and Growth at IQTalent.

Chris Murdock is a veteran of the recruiting and talent acquisition industry. He founded IQTalent in 2009 and now leads search execution and client relationships for his 200+ person firm. Prior to establishing IQTalent as a talent acquisition leader, Murdock worked with Yahoo!'s internal executive recruiting team, gaining in-depth experience across the technology recruiting sphere. He began his career with Heidrick & Struggles and later with TMP Worldwide, working in talent research and candidate sourcing after earning his BA from Vanderbilt University.

Company/Background:

IQTalent is a technology-powered talent acquisition firm specializing in recruitment at all levels.

Through two distinct brands – Caldwell and IQTalent – the firm leverages the latest innovations in AI to offer an integrated spectrum of services delivered by teams with deep knowledge in their respective areas. Founded in 2009 and merged with Caldwell in 2020, IQTalent was established with the mission to offer a better way for organizations and candidates to find a match. Through an on-demand business model, IQTalent acts as an extension of a client's internal team. The firm's services include candidate research and sourcing through to full recruitment at the professional, executive, and board levels, as well as a suite of talent strategy and assessment tools that can help clients hire the right people and then manage and inspire them to achieve maximum business results. As the founder of IQTalent, Chris Murdock continues to lead research and sourcing for the firm while working to deepen client relationships.
