

Make A Wish Festival Submissions will open in May 1st, 2023

London, United Kingdom Apr 13, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - The British Production Company “Make A Wish Film & Theatre Productions” based in London which produces independent projects, wanted to create an initiative for all professionals in the Film sector.

The Make-A-Wish Festival 2023 was born with the idea of the two founders Al Fenderico, and Tino Orsini of the same Production Company who gave life as artistic director to this event that will take place the next year 2024 on March 29th.

The Festival was born to promote artists around the world and in the film sector to allow them to have more visibility and to be able to promote diversity and inclusiveness for all projects and categories. The jury of the Festival is entirely international and with known names from the Film and Theatre sector, and will be announced very soon along with Partners and Companies involved in this initiative. Submissions will start on May 1st and close on December 31st 2023, on FilmFreeway.
