CHAPEL CHARITIES

At Sunday Evensongs this term, we will be collecting by cash and card to support the work of Refugee Education UK (REUK) and Medair. REUK support young refugees to build positive futures by breaking down barriers to accessing and progressing through education. They run mentoring programmes, offer specialist support to those in education, and produce sector leading research aimed at changing the landscape of refugee education in this country. Medair is an international humanitarian agency, working in areas suffering some of the most urgent crises, bringing relief to those affected by emergencies, natural disasters, displacement and conflicts across the globe.

CHAPEL EVENTS

Psalms: Poetry, Prayer, Paradox

Mondays 29th April – 20th May, 12.15pm

Escape the Easter Term busyness for a series of relaxed discussions and light lunches led by Jonny, Acting Chaplain, in D1 (First Court). The sessions are stand alone, so come to as many or as few as you like, as we continue our theme from last term of reading the Psalms as prayers and poetry. All are welcome.

THE CHAPEL

For nine centuries, Jesus College Chapel has been a place of quiet and contemplation, and it is open daily. Chapel services are open to all, whatever your beliefs, and College members are particularly encouraged to bring guests to Evensong before dining in Hall. The clergy are available to all members of the College – of any faith or none – as pastoral advisers, and can offer information about other faith groups. If you are willing to read or serve in Chapel or are interested in joining the team of student Chapel Clerks and Secretaries, please contact the Acting Chaplains. Enquiries regarding the use of the Chapel may be directed to Jacob Partington, the Secretary to the Dean, at chapel@jesus.cam.ac.uk. The Dean of Chapel is on leave from chaplaincy and tutorial duties for the Easter term.

THE CHOIRS

Jesus College has a long and rich tradition of church music, and is distinctive in maintaining two choirs. The College Choir, consisting mostly of students, has a female soprano line whereas the Chapel Choir admits boy trebles from around the city of Cambridge. The lower voices are common to both choirs. Enquiries regarding the choirs may be directed to Eleanor Lancelot, Choir and Chapel Office Coordinator, at choir@jesus.cam.ac.uk.
