Course Overview

Are you prepared to give a reason for the hope you have in Jesus Christ?

Can you do so with gentleness and respect?

Becky Willard Heatley, daughter of Dallas Willard, and compiler of this book writes in the preface,

“Today apologetics has become something of a cage match revolving around proofs of God’s existence and involvement in the world. What’s lost in today’s “apologetics” is to gently and lovingly address—even welcome—the honest doubts and questions that burden believers’ faith. This book began as a four-part series of talks given by my father in 1990 at Grace Church in Los Alamitos, California. As I listened to the cassette tapes, I was impressed with the uniqueness of this teaching—particularly regarding the manner with which we should approach apologetics.”

The book was published after Dallas passed as a priceless gift to Jesus followers. Becky offers, “May this book help us do as he prayed: ‘To be simple, humble, and thoughtful as we listen to others and help them come to faith in the One who has given us life.’”

The 7-session course offers wise application, winsome affirmation and weekly accountability to envision and experience intentional, Christlike thought and action naturally developing from a biblical, accurate and true understanding of life that is really life in Jesus Christ.

Each session is based on one chapter from “The Allure of Gentleness” highlighting key themes through interactive teaching, open Q&A, and practical application engaging a community of friends of Jesus and Dallas from around the world. A study guide and additional resources are provided for further personal transformation and group study.

This 2022 webinar, the 14th offered by Jesus College (JesusCollege.com) and Dallas Willard Ministries (dwillard.org), is a free gift thanks to our generous supporters who make these two ministries possible.

Your "V-I-M"  Participation

Make your experience more than just a free webinar added to your routine. Place it as an intentional discipline for spiritual growth. Ideally, invite a group or a partner, a spiritual growth "spotter", to journey with you to better learn, apply, and grow in Christlikeness as a launch pad from the sessions. Here are a few suggestions on how to make the most of this course.

- 1) READ the recommended chapters 1-7 corresponding with sessions 1-7.
- 2) LISTEN to the original teaching by Dallas from which the book was formed as a primary source, plus an additional teaching by Dallas on apologetics.
 - "Apologetics", Grace Church, 1990 (The Allure of Gentleness primary source)
 - "Jesus as Logician & Apologist"
 - "Spiritual Formation: Knowledge & Apologetics"
- 3) REVIEW the handout notes and scriptures adding your own notes to bring to each session.
- 4) SHARE - Offer questions and comments to each session that stood out in your preparation. Enter them in the Q&A tool on the bottom of the Zoom screen during the session. Linger longer for the post "Q&C" time.
- 5) PRACTICE - Answer the questions and put into action the spiritual application questions in each week's guide.
- 6) RETREAT - As part of your practice, invest one hour solo time weekly with Jesus discussing your key discovery from the week.
- 7) REFLECT - At the end of the course, type or write a 300 word summary or journal entry recognizing the impact of the study and the vision of how it can, by God's grace, form your spiritual growth in Christlikeness.

 V-I-M = Vision-Intention-Means — Dallas calls this the reliable pattern for spiritual change, really any change. As you envision a life of hearing God and truly intend to want to hear God, you will seek and find the means to practice a life of hearing God. For more on V-I-M, see Renovation of the Heart, chapter 5 (Webinar on the book.) Another rich resource on V-I-M is in the Life With God Bible Introduction, xxv-xxxvi

You who bring good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain.
You who bring good news to Jerusalem,
lift up your voice with a shout,
lift it up, do not be afraid;
say to the towns of Judah,
“Here is your God!”

Isaiah 40:9

How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news,
who proclaim peace,
who bring good tidings,
who proclaim salvation,
who say to Zion,
“Your God reigns!”

Isaiah 52:7

And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written:
“How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”

Romans 10:15

But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander.

PREFACE by Rebecca Willard Heatley

He [Dallas] wanted this book to help people wrestle with common doubts and answer some of the hard questions, allowing more room for the Spirit to advance their faith. (XI)

Gentle was a word frequently used to describe my father, he had a gentleness that seemed to come from his many years in the light and easy yoke of Christ. Is gentleness an absence of power or a power born through the Spirit and found in wisdom? Matthew 12:20 says Jesus would not even break a bruised reed or quench a smoldering wick, and yet his gentleness launched a worldwide revolution. (XI)

Today's apologetics have become somewhat of a cage match revolving around proofs of God's existence and involvement in the world. (XII)

“But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy.”
James 3:17

May this book help us do as he prayed:

“To be simple, humble, and thoughtful as we listen to others and help them come to faith in the One who has given us life.”

INTRODUCTION by Dallas Willard

pages 1-5

When most people who are familiar with it hear the word apologetics, they likely associate it with words like argument, evidence, reason, or defense. But few would think to add gentle or gentleness to the list.

Apologetics has become increasingly preoccupied with intellectual debates and arguments.

Now, in principle, there is nothing wrong with this. (1)

The best way to make the intellectual aspects of apologetics more effective is to combine them with a gentle spirit and kind presentation.

When we do the work of apologetics, we do it as disciples of Jesus — and therefore we are to do it in the manner in which He would do it. This means, above all, we do it to help people, and especially those who want to be helped. That is how all of Jesus' work is characterized in scripture.

Apologetics is a helping ministry. (2)

READ I Peter 3:15-16

Jesus, "Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

(Matthew 5:12)

Be Shrewd as Serpents & Innocent as Doves

Question #1 — What is "characterized by gentleness"?

"Humbleness of mind" Colossians 3:12, Acts 20:19, I Peter 5:5

The Allure of Gentleness by Dallas Willard
Study Guide

Question #2 — What does “give an account” mean? (I Peter 3:15)

1. Servants of Those in Need

Not to beat unwilling people into intellectual submission

2. Servants of Truth

Jesus came to testify to the truth (John 18:37)

A faithful & true witness (Revelation 3:14)

Truth in Reverence & Love

Truth reveals “reality” - what humans run into when we are wrong

We speak the truth in love (Ephesians 4:15)

Counting on the Spirit of truth (John 16:13)

~ Finding Truth — “Finding real truth is the point of reference we share with all human beings. No one can live without truth. ‘Allegiance to Truth’ permits us to stand alongside every person as honest fellow inquirers.” (4)

“Our attitude is not of ‘Us and Them’.”

“Generous in Love — Not overbearing, contemptuous, hostile, defensive”

~ Finding Truth in Love — “Like Jesus, we reach out in love in a humble spirit with no coercion. The only way to accomplish this is to present our defense gently, as help offered in love in the manner of Jesus.

That means our communication needs to be gentle, because our gentleness also characterizes the subject of our communication. What we are seeking to defend or explain is Jesus Himself, who is a gentle loving Shepherd.” (4)

3. Embody Gentleness & Reverence

“Embody the message and person we want to communicate. Only with ‘gentleness and reverence’ will people be able to see, verify, and be persuaded to respond to what we have to say.”

“In the rest of the book I will convey many important topics...but all will be wasted unless the allure of gentleness pervades all that we do.” (5)

THE ROLE of REASON

"Reason is the human ability to see a relationship between real or possible facts and other real or possible facts, such that if you have the one, you have the other, or you don't have the other. (44) The human activity of reasoning is an indispensable part of the foundation of our faith. Reason then is key to our part in the ministry of the gospel." (46)

Chapter 6 - THE PROBLEM OF PAIN & EVIL pages 111-139

THE ARGUMENT of PAIN and a GOOD GOD (111-124)

"A deadly blow to the Christian faith?"

PREMISE #1 — If Christianity is true, then God is both benevolent toward humankind and infinitely powerful.

Part A - God's benevolence is not sentimental. Love is...

- 1) Devoted to the good of others.
- 2) Not to be confused with desire.

Part B - God can take care of His own business including caring for human beings.

PREMISE #2 — If God is benevolent toward humankind and infinitely powerful, then He will see to it that we do not suffer.

Q - Why would God not allow humans to suffer?

A - Pain is the worst possible thing!

A friend would stop the pain if possible.

PAIN Separated from EVIL — The Important Distinction

(116-119)

—> The Heart of the Argument — The Value of Pain

Pain is the ultimate of evils!

We just don't like it, which doesn't make it bad.

Pain is never preferable!

Unless dying, betraying conviction, losing a friend.

Pain serves no good end!

Pain and pleasure make human life and character possible.

PREMISE #3 — God does not see to it that we do not suffer.

CONCLUSION — Christianity is false, since God is either not benevolent or not powerful, to which the presence of suffering testifies.

The Allure of Gentleness by Dallas Willard
Study Guide

Chapter 6 - THE PROBLEM OF PAIN AND EVIL (continued)

REJECTION of the ARGUMENT (120-121)

People suffer because God is Benevolent. It is for our best.

"Paradise Found" — I want what I want and I'm insulted if I don't get it.

EVIL - Is God responsible for all evil?

"The single most practical urgent problem for Christians."

God made us capable of doing wrong knowing we would, therefore it's His fault. (120)

* Mom & Dad, it's your fault!

Classical Argument — If God could and is good, He would! (121-122)

Humans act too! Freedom and Natural Law

God's purpose in human history - "Crown Jewels in a free, loving community."
A world that contains the greatest possibility of evil is the one that also contains greatest possibility of good.

IN A PERFECT WORLD

"Why didn't God make us wholly good in a wholly good world?" (123)

...Create my perfect world with my needs in mind?! (124)

- 1.) "My good world" is not necessarily a better world - "Grass is greener"?
- 2.) Why do objectors get their way not the the many who find it good?
- 3.) God is obligated to suit personal taste: What I want or He's a bad boy.

CONCLUSION = There is no Good without Evil. (125)

REVIEW of the ARGUMENT OF PAIN and a GOOD GOD

God is Benevolent & Powerful...PAIN is Separate from EVIL.

PAIN & Pleasure make Human Life & Character possible. We suffer because God
IS benevolent. A world with EVIL possible can be a world with the greatest possibility of GOOD.

The Allure of Gentleness by Dallas Willard
Study Guide

Chapter 6 - THE PROBLEM OF PAIN AND EVIL (continued pages 125-139)

CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT (125-127)

Parenting: "Make good choices!" (Habits)

where doing EVIL is a readily available option

Set EVIL in the good that God achieves by Permitting not Producing EVIL (128)

"Parenting is pain management" Doug Webster

THE CHRISTIAN RESPONSE to PAIN & EVIL (129-133)

1st — Accept the full reality of suffering knowing God is there and good will triumph.

2nd — God does not do evil. He knows better. Job 13:15 "Though...yet!" 3rd — A World with Pain & Evil develop creatures of the highest value.

4th — God is going to win. Joel 2:25-27; Psalm 23:1; 2 Corinthians 4:17-18

Everything is Redeemable = Permissible in a "God-Bathed World"

HUMAN RESPONSIBILITY & THE OTHER PROBLEM of EVIL (134-136)

[Evil — Problem #1 - Why is it here? Problem #2 - How to get rid of it?]

Five Actions to Rid the World of Evil

- 1.) Cease to do evil — Start where I am and do something
- 2.) Trust the goodness & greatness of God
- 3.) Turn loose the chain of Self-Deification
- 4.) Deal with the root cause — ANGER — by surrendering my will to God
- 5.) Stand against evil unconcerned about what happens to me
"Not perfect, just a lot better."

ENROLL in THE SCHOOL OF JESUS Jesus as Our Model (136-137)

The best way to stand against evil — Simply rely on Jesus Christ to guide and help me. Jesus IS what I OUGHT to be!

MEDITATION — Ephesians 1:7, 18; 2:7, 3:8; 4:7

APPLICATION — V-I-M: Vision - Intention - Means for spiritual growth

V — What "incomparable riches of glorious grace" do I see in Jesus?

I — How much of my world do I expect, request, demand or complain about?

M — Which "Five Actions against Evil" will Jesus & I work on this week?

The Allure of Gentleness by Dallas Willard

Chapter 7 - LIVING AND ACTING WITH GOD pages 141-170

THE BIG IDEA — “Kingdom Living”

“The ultimate apologetic is the life of the individual who is living out of the resources of the kingdom of God.” (143)

THREE PARTS of a PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP with GOD

1.) A Personal Reality

“God is a person and approaches people redemptively as a person.” (144)

2.) “Why are you hopeful? What’s going on in your life?”

Living Proof = Less proof...more sense (145 & 85)

The Allure of Gentleness* – “Kingdom” Quotes

What we're really talking about is aiding others and removing doubts that hinder their enthusiastic and full participation in the KINGDOM of the heavens and their discipleship to Christ. 9

So we'll use our natural reason, under the guidance and power of the holy spirit, in the work of apologetics to bring information and logic to bear on doubts that prevent a steady, clear perception of the realities of God's KINGDOM. 10

The Beatitudes said you are really fortunate when you get to suffer for righteousness sake. Why do you suppose that is? It is because in suffering for righteousness sake, you know the reality of the KINGDOM of the heavens in your life. That reality comes into you, and you find that you are leading a supernatural, deathless life. 30

When we read scripture, we have to think about whether the people who wrote it might actually have meant something by it. They did! They're talking about the reality of the KINGDOM of the heavens - the stone that was cut out without hands and is going to wipe out all the nations of the earth (Daniel 2:45) is already here! It is the stone that is the rock of offense and stumbling. It's Jesus Christ himself, the Chief Cornerstone, and He is here. 32

We are using our reason to help people come to a clear place of faith, where their confidence in the God of the Bible will be just as real as the floor on which they stand. That's Faith. That's the kind of faith that results in peace, hope, and obedience, because it is a faith that puts us in touch with the reality of the KINGDOM of God. 86

The ultimate apologetic is the life of the individual who is living out of the resources of the KINGDOM of God. To have a nice set of abstract ideas and arguments can be very important for us, but we need to be people who are actually accomplishing things in the KINGDOM of the Heavens through our prayers and our words. 143

You really can know what it is like to deal with God and for God to deal with you in the daily moments of your existence. God creates and sustains personal relationships with individuals by his individual word to them, within the confines of biblical teachings. His KINGDOM works by words! 146

Study Guide

You are given a new life when you are born into the KINGDOM of the heavens. That life is an interactive life with God. You turn your mind and your feelings toward God. 157

Learning to live in the KINGDOM of the heavens is something that is often tense and embarrassing. One of the things you will notice in the passages is that the disciples were often embarrassed because they tried to do things and couldn't. Or they were shocked by what Jesus did in such a casual manner. Faith is often expressed by the Casual manner in which people act. The expression of their faith has an everyday feel about it.

Casualness shows the confidence of our interaction with the rule of God from the heavens here and now. 158-159

God's presence is the whole story. This interaction between us and the God who is present with us always is what the resurrection is really about. The meaning of the resurrection isn't just Jesus won; it's that he is now living with us. So how does that work? It works with words. The KINGDOM of God works with words. 160

There's nothing magic in words, but there is power in them when they fit into the KINGDOM. Watch what Jesus says... 162

"If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you." (John 15:7)

Jesus was introducing a way of behaving within the structure of the KINGDOM. 166

Abraham, the man of Faith, went out not knowing where he was going. That was not a blind leap of faith, because Abraham knew God. He didn't know where he was going, But he knew he was going with God. That is what our knowledge of the KINGDOM does. When we share these thoughts with other believers, it may open their minds into a new dimension of Faith and Hope, vision and work, as they read now with new eyes such words as these from the above scriptures and see the manner of life in the KINGDOM of God. It enables us to step out in faith and then to invite others to join us. 169

“Master’s in the Master” Spiritual Training

The Jesus College "Master's in the Master" is a clear, realistic, practical method to foster "Christlikeness" in ordinary people who take transformation seriously. This is not an accredited degree. The Master's offers you a Jesus centered, wisdom guided, community* engaged, mentor supported, daily life integrated, spiritual growth plan.

CURRICULUM — The Master's is built around (15) webinars varying in length from 3 to 31 sessions per course based on the books and teachings of Dallas Willard. (13) courses (listed on the previous page) are completed and available in the JesusCollege.com library to start today. Courses will be offered again "live" throughout the year.

CALENDAR & TIME - The Master's is an individually paced time frame based on when you start and how often you participate in "live" courses or watch recordings of the sessions. We use the word "cohort" but there is not a set group - "no freshman class" - nor pre-set time to commence or complete your Master's. This is an independent study and growth training effort. We estimate for serious participation 3+ hours per week over a timespan equal to the 3+ years Jesus walked with His disciples. 3+ hours weekly for 3+ years. Again, this is your preferred pace NOT according to a Jesus College calendar or semester syllabus.

COMMUNITY* — We are seeking the platforms to facilitate connection with other students to engage and enjoy rich diversity of Jesus' friends from 44 countries involved in Jesus College.

COST — The "Master's" training is offered for FREE by Jesus College. Additional personal coaching, church consulting and training, teaching or preaching at your location or virtual are available from Jesus College at pre-determined costs between the two parties. Financial donations are also welcomed for those who want to help further the impact of Jesus College.

COMMENTS from Jesus College Students:

- Cath from Australia, "I had another look at the website link - WOW! Amazing syllabus and I'm excited about the 3 years walk with Jesus."
- Tony from England, "In brief, these courses have changed my view on discipleship. I feel myself a new creation."
- Pastor Oladipo from Lagos, Nigeria, "I've participated in all the courses except one. It has impacted my ministry strongly because we are fine tuning our church to become a church who really does what Jesus said. The whole experience has been personally transforming for me personally and in my ministry. In time we can become the example of the kind of church Dallas has said he has never seen."
- Judy from Virginia, "I'm definitely interested and I've loved everything you have offered. Everything! The idea of experiencing this with other people face-to-face is very appealing to me."
- Don from Canada, "This Jesus College vision is on the leading edge for the future of the Christ community."
