

Tribal Justice and Safety – One OJP

Tribal Consultation, Training, and Technical Assistance

Session Four

July 30 – August 3, 2007

Sheraton Crescent Hotel

Phoenix, Arizona

Agenda

Sunday, Pre-Session: July 29, 2007

9:00 am – 1:00 pm Tour – Gila River Indian Community

Meet in Hotel Lobby 8:00 am

6:00 pm – 7:30 pm Registration Desk Open

Crescent Ballroom Pre-Function Area

7:00 pm – 8:00 pm Reception for Session Participants

Crescent Ballroom

Moderators:

Daryl Crawford, Executive Director, Inter-Tribal Council of Nevada, Inc., NV

Laura Ansera, Tribal Youth Coordinator, Office of Policy Development, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept of Justice

Welcome

Eric Broderick, D.D.S., M.P.H., Deputy Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration; Assistant Surgeon General, U.S. Public Health Services, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services

Robert S. Kroll, Deputy Administrator, SW Office of Native American Programs, US Dept. of Housing and Urban Development

Introducing Indian Country's Newest Correctional Facilities

Robert H. Brown, Jr., Senior Policy Advisor, Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

Carla Flanagan, Associate Director for Corrections, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior

Shelley Zavlek, President, Justice Solutions Group, Justice Planners International, NJ

Mark Goldman, President, Mark Goldman and Associates; Partner, Justice Planners International, GA

San Carlos Apache Crown Dancers

8:00 pm – 8:30 pm Mandatory Session Planners Meeting with Presenters and Moderators

Canyon 1

Robert H. Brown, Jr., Senior Policy Advisor, Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

Rebecca M. Murdock, Tribal Justice Programs Manager, Criminal Justice Center for Innovation, Fox Valley Technical College, WI

Monday, July 30, 2007
National Criminal Justice Association (NCJA) National Forum on Criminal Justice and Public Safety ~ Wild Horse Pass Resort (Separate Agenda) Tribal Justice and Safety Session ~ Training and Technical Assistance ~ Crescent Sheraton Hotel (Agenda Below)
8:00 am – 5:00 pm	Meeting Registration and Information Desk Crescent Ballroom Pre-Function Area
8:00 am	Continental Breakfast
8:30 am – 9:15 am	Traditional Opening, Color Guard Crescent Ballroom Jonah Rey , Traditional Leader, Salt River Pima Maricopa Indians, AZ Welcome Raphael Bear , President, Ft. McDowell Yavapai Nation, AZ Diane Humetewa , Senior Litigation Counsel and Tribal Liaison, U.S. Attorney's Office, AZ Robert S. Kroll , Deputy Administrator, SW Office of Native American Programs, US Dept. of Housing and Urban Development W. Patrick Ragsdale , Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior Morning Moderators: John Lewis , Executive Director, Inter Tribal Council of Arizona, Inc., AZ Beverly Watts Davis , Senior Policy Advisor for Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment, Office of the Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U. S. Dept. of Health and Human Services
9:15 am – 10:15 am Panel Facilitator:	Sexual Assault in Indian Country - Panel Presentation Crescent Ballroom Leslie Hagen , Assistant US Attorney, Western District of MI; Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice, Indian Country Sexual Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehension, Registry, and Tracking (SMART) Office Juana Majel Dixon , Pauma-Legislative Council Woman; Secretary, National Congress of American Indians; Chair, NCAI Task Force on Addressing Violence Against Women, CA Gordon Hanes , Vice President of Behavioral Services Division, South Central Foundation, AK Randall Jackson , Unit Chief, FBI Indian Country-Special Crimes Unit Roi Holt , Victim Assistance Program Coordinator, Office of Law Enforcement, Security, and Emergency Management, U.S. Dept. of the Interior Lorraine Edmo , Tribal Deputy Director, Office on Violence Against Women, U. S. Dept. of Justice This session will highlight various federal agencies and their dealings with sexual assault. Best practices from tribal representatives will couple with federal law enforcement and victim advocacy to offer detailed insight into how to better cope with sexual assault in Indian Country.
10:15 am – 10:30 am	Break (Sessions will continue in breakout rooms)
10:30 am – 11:45 am WORKSHOPS
	AMBER in Indian Country Crescent Ballroom James Warren , Administrator, Division of Criminal Investigation, Wisconsin Department of Justice, WI Susan Whitehorse , Director, Wisconsin Clearinghouse for the Missing, Wisconsin Department of Justice, WI Ron Gurley , Project Manager, Native American Programs, FirstPic, Inc., MD Jim Walters , Consultant, Criminal Justice Division, Fox Valley Technical College, DC This session will provide an opportunity to discuss the DOJ/OJP AMBER Alert Program, such as basic program information, considerations and guidelines for AMBER Alert activations, and data from 2006 Alerts. Considerations for expanding AMBER Alert into Indian country and the availability of training and technical assistance opportunities will be included in the presentation.
	Developing Comprehensive Community-based Safety Plans for Tribal Communities Crescent 1 Gerry Cavis , U.S. Secret Service (Retired), National Security Specialist, Criminal Justice Center for Innovation, Fox Valley Technical College, WI Participants will benefit from learning how tribal officials, service providers, and community stakeholders are working together to plan and implement balanced approaches to plan and implement comprehensive strategies to reduce and control crime associated with the distribution and abuse of alcohol and other controlled substances.
	Coalition Building Crescent 3 Beverly Watts Davis , Senior Policy Advisor for Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment, Office of the Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U. S. Dept. of Health and Human Services This workshop will share strategies and practices on "WHAT WORKS" to build coalitions and mobilize communities for positive change. Topics will include: 1) Initiating a community-wide prevention effort; 2) recognizing, providing and developing leadership; 3) maintaining the momentum; 4) implementing activities; 5) building resources; 6) assessing the impact of your prevention efforts; and 7) sustainability. The workshop will also discuss the Drug-Free Communities Grant Application and offer grant writing tips to respond to this grant announcement.
	Indian Police Academy and Methamphetamine Courses Crescent 4 Jonathan Whitefoot , Special Agent, Indian Police Academy, NM This session describes the various basic and advanced trainings, to include methamphetamine and specialized drug training, being offered by the Indian Police Academy in cooperation with the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center.
	Keeping up with the Changing World of Financial Management Crescent 6 Renee Cooper , Deputy Director, Grants Policy Office, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice This session is critical for those tribes having/receiving DOJ related grants. It will cover the financial accounting systems, including allowable costs, financial status reports (SF 269), audit requirements, and grant adjustment notices (electronic GAN's).

Monday, July 30, 2007 (Cont'd.)
Reducing Overcrowding in Tribal Justice Systems through Pretrial Service Strategies Daniel B. Ryan, J.D., Consultant, Pretrial Justice Institute, DC Pretrial Service strategies can significantly reduce crowding in tribal justice systems. Participants will learn of a federal-tribal initiative that has been established to develop, test, and implement low cost, culturally appropriate Pretrial Service strategies and tools that are expected to have a high return for tribal justice systems.	Phoenix C
11:45 am – 1:15 pm Lunch (On your own) (Sessions will continue in breakout rooms after lunch)
12:00 pm – 2:00 pm ICMI Task Force Meeting (Closed Meeting)
Canyon II
Monday, July 30, 2007 (Cont'd.) 1:15 pm – 2:30 pm WORKSHOPS
Violence Against Women Act of 2005 – Training, Technical Assistance and Funding Opportunities Lorraine Edmo, Tribal Deputy Director, Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Dept. of Justice Cheryl Neskahi Coan, Training Director, Southwest Center for Law and Policy, AZ The Violence Against Women (VAWA) Act of 2005 contained a number of funding programs and initiatives aimed at improving criminal justice and community response to violence against American Indian and Alaska Native Women. The provisions of the Act will be discussed, funding opportunities explained and opportunities for technical assistance will be addressed by the presenters. You are invited to attend and hear about this important program	Crescent Ballroom
Sustaining Wellness Courts for Tribal Communities Korey Wahwassuck, Chief Judge, Leech Lake Tribal Court, MN Hon. John Smith, District Court Judge, Cass County Courthouse, MN This session will examine an innovative Wellness Court on the Leech Lake reservation in Minnesota where both a Tribal and State Court Judge provide supervision and monitoring of tribal members as well as non-Indians convicted of drug and alcohol-related crime. The session will explore how the State and Tribal Courts reached an agreement on the management of the Court and the supervision of offenders and will discuss sanctions and incentives used.	Crescent 1
Co-Occurring Disorders Elizabeth Lopez, Ph.D., Public Health Analyst, Division of Policy Coordination, Office of Policy, Planning and Budget, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services SAMHSA has identified Co-Occurring Mental and Substance Abuse Disorders as a top program priority for the agency. As a key Program and Priority Matrix Area, the purpose of the SAMHSA Co-Occurring Program Matrix Area is to expand and improve prevention, appropriate treatment and other supportive services to individuals with and/or at risk for co-occurring disorders. This session will provide an overview of SAMHSA's strategy and initiatives. A number of current and upcoming co-occurring disorder related initiatives will be discussed including plans for a Tribal Policy Academy this fall.	Crescent 3
Developing Multi-Jurisdictional Partnerships Jason O'Neal, Chief of Police, Chickasaw Lighthouse Police, OK James Warren, Administrator, Division of Criminal Investigation, Wisconsin Dept. of Justice Susan Whitehorse, Director, Wisconsin Clearinghouse for the Missing, Wisconsin Dept. of Justice This session discusses that, because crime is not limited to jurisdictional boundaries, there is an increased emphasis on the importance of agencies "Working Together To Serve Better." However, to insure clarity, the development of operational relationships through the use of MOA's and MOU's is a critical component. An important matter such as the need to recognize sovereignty and government-to-government agreements is highlighted through example. Successful accomplishments through positive "can do" attitudes will be shared.	Crescent 4
Grants Administration/Financial Management Kathleen Sample, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment Team Leader, Division of Grants Management, Office of Program Services, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services The Division of Grants Management will present the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration's pre application process from introducing the applicant the PHS-5161-1 (Application for Federal Assistance) and completion of this document. In addition, provide the applicant with the knowledge regarding how the application is reviewed internally by this office prior to funding and explain some of the typical post award requirements of the grant.	Crescent 6
Boys & Girls Clubs – Community Wellness Programs for Children and Youth Ron Gurley, Project Manager, Native American Programs, FirstPic, Inc., MD Kristen Lichtenwalner, Sr. Project Coordinator, Native American Programs, FirstPic, Inc., MD This session will focus on the various program options offered by Boys & Girls Clubs of America for Native American communities interested in starting or enhancing programs for youth. This session will provide information on implementing community based primary prevention programs for youth, including MethSMART and the Mentoring Children of Prisoners initiative. Over 200 Boys & Girls Clubs currently exist in Indian Country, serving more than 140,000 young people. Learn about new funding opportunities available through the Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice. Visit www.naclubs.org for more information about these programs and other special initiatives.	Phoenix A
Developing Master Plans for Constructing Tribal Correctional Facilities and Multi-Service Centers Shelley Zavlek, President, Justice Solutions Group, Justice Planners International, NJ Mark Goldman, President, Mark Goldman and Associates; Partner, Justice Planners International, GA Patricia Broken Leg, Corrections Program Specialist, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs Learn of a new federal-tribal initiative that provides funding and assistance for tribes that are committed to establishing executive-level planning teams to develop comprehensive master plans for new local and regional correctional facilities and multi-service centers. They will also learn about the importance and process for planning new facilities. A case study will be presented involving the Rosebud Sioux Tribe's Wanbli Wiconi Tipi, Youth Wellness and Renewal Center.	Phoenix C

Monday, July 30, 2007 (Continued) 2:45 pm – 4:00 pm WORKSHOPS
2:30 pm – 2:45 pm Break (Sessions will continue in breakout rooms after the break)
Crime Victims - Connecting the Pieces Crescent Ballroom Jesucita Hernandez, Program Manager, Walking in Balance, Pascua Yaqui Tribe, AZ Loren Gaytan, Deputy, Maricopa County Sheriff's Office, AZ Mary Ward, Detective, Maricopa County Sheriff's Office, AZ Laurel Shuster, Ph.D., Social Science Program Specialist, Office for Victims of Crime, U.S. Dept. of Justice This session will provide an overview of how to utilize various partnerships to collaborate and provide effective services for victims of crime. Participants will examine a Tribal program which has been honored for best practices, mastering collaborative methods.
Tribal Court Development and Enhancement Crescent 1 Michelle Rivard-Parks, Associate Deputy Director, Tribal Judicial Institute, School of Law, Univ. of ND This session will examine the technical assistance available for Indian tribes that receive grants under the Tribal Court Assistance Program, the Indian Alcohol and Substance Abuse Prevention Program, or the Drug Court program, to plan a tribal justice system/Wellness Court or to enhance such a system. It will examine the need for code development and judicial personnel training and also discuss the contemporary issues facing modern tribal justice systems including methamphetamine, child welfare issues, the need for effective advocates, the Indian Civil Rights Act and other areas of note. This session will also be useful for Tribes that have not received funding from the BJA.
Minority AIDS Initiative for Collaboration for Prevention and Treatment Improvement for American Indians and Alaska Natives at Risk for Substance Use and HIV/AIDS Crescent 3 Love Foster Horton, Public Health Advisor, Project Officer, HIV/AIDS Initiative for Indian Country, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration U. S. Dept. of Health and Human Services In October 1998, the President declared HIV/AIDS to be a severe and on-going health crisis in racial and ethnic minority communities. In response, the Administration, the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), the Congressional Black Caucus, and the Congressional Hispanic Caucus announced a special package of initiatives aimed at reducing the impact of HIV/AIDS on racial and ethnic minorities. This workshop will discuss SAMHSA's $3 million Minority AIDS Initiative (MAI) to assist tribes, tribal organizations, and urban Indian organization in 12 states that may be at risk for Substance Use and HIV/AIDS. It will also give SAMHSA the opportunity to exchange ideas and receive tribal input on how to best implement the MAI Initiative in tribal communities.
The Native American Connection and the Navajo Nation Law Enforcement Empowerment Pilot Project Crescent 4 DuWayne Honahni, Sr., National Drug Coordinator, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior, NM Edward Thompson, Special Agent, Drug Enforcement, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior, NM Wallace Billie, Sergeant, Navajo Nation Dept. of Law Enforcement, AZ This session describes the criminal/drug connection between Native Americans and Hispanic drug trafficking organizations. Because of the impact of this connection, the Navajo LE Empowerment Initiative is the Navajo Nation's way of confronting the problem and what they are doing to help themselves as it pertains to Law Enforcement.
Re-Weaving the Fabric of your Community with Federal Funds (Innovative Grant Writing Tips, Techniques & Strategies) Crescent 6 Beverly Watts Davis, Senior Policy Advisor for Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment, Office of the Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U. S. Dept. of Health and Human Services This workshop introduces the attendees to tips on how to write successful Federal grants. This session will explore the various Federal funding grants and how to leverage them to meet the comprehensive needs of a Tribal community.
Native Aspiration Project: "Lessons Learned and Stages of Readiness for Effective Community Mobilization & Prevention Planning" Phoenix A Gloria Guillory and Gary Neumann, Project Managers, Native Aspirations 2, Kaufmann & Associates, Inc. Part one of the workshop will examine lessons learned from Native Aspirations Co-Hort 1. Part two will be an experiential exercise utilizing the Community Readiness Model used to help communities select appropriate strategies for their readiness level.
Reentry Strategies for Tribal Communities Phoenix C Tracy G. Mullins, Sr. Research Associate, American Probation and Parole Association Kimberly Cobb, Research Associate, American Probation and Parole Association Community supervision strategies can prevent jail overcrowding in tribal communities severely impacted by alcohol, substance abuse, and methamphetamine. During this interactive workshop, participants will learn about and provide input on a federal-tribal initiative to implement cost effective reentry strategies for tribal communities designed to enhance community supervision of tribal offenders. Among issues to be discussed will be the development of a guide to assist tribal courts in selecting and utilizing appropriate risk and needs assessment tools and other resources to develop effective supervision and treatment plans designed to enforce supervision conditions and promote behavioral change.
4:00 pm – 4:15 pm Break (Session will continue in general assembly room after the break)
4:15 pm – 5:00 pm General Assembly Presentation and Closing Crescent Ballroom
Afternoon Moderators:	Roman Duran, First Vice President, National American Indian Court Judges Association; Associate Judge, Jicarilla Apache Nation, NM Valerie Jordan, Tribal Specialist, Office of Policy, Planning and Budget, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services Health Issues Involving American Indian and Alaska Native Communities Mirtha Beadle, Deputy Director, Office of Minority Health, Office of Public Health and Science, Office of the Secretary, U.S. Dept. of Health & Human Service Small Business Administration: Programs and Opportunities for American Indian and Alaska Native Communities William Largent, National Director, Office of Native American Affairs, U.S. Small Business Administration
5:00 pm Adjourn – Dinner on your Own (additional evening meetings continued on the next pages)

Monday, July 30, 2007 (Continued)
5:00 pm – 7:00 pm Tribal Leaders Caucus	Canyon II
Elected officials and designees will have an opportunity to meet and plan for the consultation.
5:00 pm – 7:00 pm	AMBER Pilot Site Meeting Crescent I
6:30 pm – 8:00 pm	Alaskan Gathering of Tribal Court Professionals (AGTCP) Canyon I
Tuesday, July 31, 2007
National Criminal Justice Association (NCJA) National Forum on Criminal Justice and Public Safety ~ Wild Horse Pass Resort (Separate Agenda)
OJJDP Tribal Youth Program Mandatory Regional Training Day One (Separate Agenda) Crescent III
Tribal Justice and Safety Session ~ Federal-Tribal Consultation ~ Crescent Sheraton Hotel (Agenda Below)
8:00 am – 5:00 pm	Meeting Registration and Information Desk Crescent Ballroom Pre-Function Area
8:00 am	Continental Breakfast
12:00 pm – 5:00 pm	Shuttle Service to Wild Horse Pass for National Criminal Justice Association Conference Meet in Hotel Lobby for Non-Elected Tribal Representative
8:15 am – 4:30 pm	Tribal Consultation Session on Public Safety, Justice, and Public Health Crescent Ballroom
8:15 am	Opening Comments Lt. Governor Jefferson Keel, Vice President, National Congress of American Indians (NCAI)
8:30 am – 12:00 pm
Morning Moderators	Lt. Governor Jefferson Keel, Chickasaw Nation and NCAI Vice President, OK Eugenia Tyner-Dawson, Senior Advisor to the Assistant Attorney General for Tribal Affairs; Executive Director, Justice Programs Council on Native American Affairs, Office of Justice Programs, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, U.S. Dept. of Justice Robert S. Kroll, Deputy Administrator, SW Office of Native American Programs, US Dept. of Housing and Urban Development, AZ
	Tribal Leader Introductions
	Adam Walsh Implementation – Proposed Guidelines
	Virginia Davis, Associate Counsel, National Congress of American Indians Leslie Hagen, Assistant US Attorney, Western District of MI; Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice, Indian Country Sexual Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehension, Registry, and Tracking (SMART) Office
	Tribal Leader Presentations and Tribal/Federal Discussion
12:00 pm – 1:00 pm	Working Lunch (Provided) Adam Walsh Implementation – Proposed Guidelines (Cont'd.)
1:00 pm – 4:30 pm	Tribal Consultation Session on Public Safety, Justice, and Public Health (Cont'd) Crescent Ballroom
Afternoon	Councilwoman Linda Holt, Suquamish Indian Tribe; Washington Board Member, National Indian Health Board
Moderators	Eric Broderick, D.D.S., M.P.H, Deputy Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration; Assistant Surgeon General, U.S. Public Health Services, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services W. Patrick Ragsdale, Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior
	Issues for Consultation
	Tribal Leader Presentations and Tribal/Federal Discussion
	Methamphetamine in Indian Country Richard Brannan, Chairman, Northern Arapaho Tribe, WY
	Detention Facilities Hope MacDonald LoneTree, Council Member, Chair, Public Safety Commission, Navajo Nation
	SAMHSA – Minority HIV/AIDS Initiative for Indian Country Love Foster Horton, Public Health Advisor, Project Officer, HIV/AIDS Initiative for Indian Country, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration U. S. Dept. of Health and Human Services
	Additional Tribal Presentations
	Federal Representatives for Consultation Jon T. Perez, Ph.D., Captain, U.S. Public Health Service, National Behavioral Health Consultant, Indian Health Service, Team Leader, U.S. Public Health Service Mental Health Disaster Response Team II
4:30 pm – 5:00 pm	Summary and Closing Dennis Smith, Sr., Tribal Business Member, Shoshone Paiute Tribe, NV W. Patrick Ragsdale, Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior Robert Kroll, Deputy Administrator, SW Office of Native American Programs, US Dept. of Housing and Urban Development Eric Broderick, D.D.S., M.P.H, Deputy Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration; Assistant Surgeon General, U.S. Public Health Services, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services Regina B. Schofield, Assistant Attorney General, Office of Justice Programs, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, U.S. Dept. of Justice
5:00 pm	Adjourn
Evening	On Your Own

Wednesday, August 1, 2007
OJJDP Tribal Youth Program Mandatory Regional Training Day Two (Separate Agenda) Crescent III
Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) Tribal Methamphetamine Summit -Crescent Sheraton Hotel
The objectives of the Summit are to identify tribal priorities for combating methamphetamine, highlight key tribal best practices and to develop specific action plans to address methamphetamine in Indian Country. (Agenda Below)
7:00 am – 11:00 am		Tour – Gila River Indian Community		Meet in Hotel Lobby 6:00 am
7:00 am – 4:30 pm	Meeting Registration and Information Desk			Crescent Ballroom Pre-Function Area
1:00 pm – 5:00 pm	Exhibitor Gallery Setup			Canyon II
7:00 am – 5:00 pm	Presenter Conference Room			Canyon I
7:00 am – 7:30 am	Continental Breakfast			Crescent Ballroom Pre-Function Area
7:30 am – 8:00 am	Welcome and Overview of the Event Scott Burns , Deputy Director, Office of State, Local and Tribal Affairs, Office of National Drug Control Policy Jackie Johnson , Executive Director, National Congress of American Indians Councilwoman Hope MacDonald Lone Tree , 21st Navajo Nation Council Chairperson, Public Safety Committee, Member, Intergovernmental Relations Committee			Crescent Ballroom
8:00 am – 8:15 am	Break (Participants will move to their selected working group)
8:15 am – 10:30 am	Facilitated Working Groups
Law Enforcement & Public Safety Crescent Ballroom A	Courts & Corrections Crescent Ballroom C	Intervention & Treatment Phoenix A	Community Strategies & Empowerment Phoenix B	Youth & Children Phoenix C
10:30 am – 10:45 am	Break
10:45 am – 1:00 pm	Continued Working Groups
Law Enforcement & Public Safety Crescent Ballroom A	Courts & Corrections Crescent Ballroom C	Intervention & Treatment Phoenix A	Community Strategies & Empowerment Phoenix B	Youth & Children Phoenix C
1:00 pm – 1:15 pm	Break (Participants move to plenary session for luncheon program)
1:15 pm – 2:15 pm	Luncheon Program NCAI Methamphetamine Task Force Representatives Chairman Jamie Fullmer , Yavapai-Apache Nation Jackson Brossy , Legislative Fellow, National Congress of American Indians John Carnevale, Ph.D. , “2008 Financial Opportunities Available for Native Americans”			Crescent Ballroom
2:15 pm – 3:30 pm	Reports from Working Groups Each working group’s top five (5) priorities/action plans			Crescent Ballroom
3:30 pm – 4:30 pm	Federal Response to Reports Leslie Hagen , Assistant US Attorney, Western District of MI; Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice, Indian Country Sexual Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehension, Registry, and Tracking (SMART) Office Beverly Watts Davis , Sr. Policy Advisor for Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment, Office of the Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U. S. Dept. of Health and Human Services DuWayne Honahni, Sr. , National Drug Coordinator, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior, NM Scott Burns , Deputy Director, Office of State, Local and Tribal Affairs, Office of National Drug Control Policy			Crescent Ballroom
4:30 pm Summit Adjourn
Evening On Your Own

Thursday, August 2, 2007 (Additional Meeting)
American Probation and Parole Association Focus Group – Crescent Sheraton Hotel
8:00 am – 5:00 pm	American Probation and Parole Association Focus Group	Crescent I and Crescent VI

Thursday, August 2 and Friday, August 3, 2007
Tribal Crime Data and Information Sharing Conference
Strengthening Sovereignty through Justice Data and Information Sharing
(Click here for Crime Data Conference Agenda)	