

Tribal Justice & Safety

Government-to-Government Consultation, Training & Technical Assistance including a National Tribal Symposium on Sex Offender Management and Accountability

November 27-30 2007

Hyatt Regency Tamaya
Santa Ana Pueblo, New Mexico

Agenda-at-a-Glance

Monday, Pre-Session: November 26, 2007
4:30 pm – 7:30 pm	Registration Desk Open	Mountainview Foyer
5:00 pm – 7:00 pm	Tribal Leader Caucus (NCAI)	Tamaya Ballroom
7:30 pm – 8:00 pm	Planners Meeting with Presenters and Moderators	Eagle
Tuesday, November 27, 2007
7:30 am – 5:00 pm	Meeting Registration and Information Desk	Mountainview Foyer
7:30 am – 8:00 am	Continental Breakfast	Pre-Function Area
8:15 am – 4:30 pm	Government-to-Government Consultation Session on Improving Tribal Detention Facilities and Possible Reforms to Native Participation in Government Contracting Programs	Tamaya Ballroom
4:30 pm – 5:00 pm	Summary and Closing	Tamaya Ballroom
Wednesday, November 28, 2007
7:30 am – 5:00 pm	Meeting Registration and Information Desk	Mountainview Foyer
7:30 am – 8:15 am	Continental Breakfast	Pre-Function Area
8:30 am – 9:15 am	Traditional Opening, Color Guard	Tamaya Ballroom
9:15 am – 10:15 am	Plenary Session: Effectively Navigating Grants.gov	Tamaya Ballroom
10:15 am – 10:30 am	Break
10:30 am – 11:45 am	Workshops	(See Pages 4-8 for Room)
11:45 am – 1:15 pm	Lunch (On your own)
1:15 pm – 2:30 pm	Workshops	(See Pages 4-8 for Room)
2:30 pm – 2:45 pm	Break
2:45 pm – 4:00 pm	Workshops	(See Pages 4-8 for Room)
4:00 pm – 4:15 pm	Break
4:15 pm – 5:15 pm	Plenary Session: Children and Youth Collaboration Panel	Tamaya Ballroom
6:15 pm	Tribal Networking Session	Tamaya Ballroom

Key:

	- Plenary Session
	- Workshops
	- Break

November 27-30 2007
 Hyatt Regency Tamaya
 Santa Ana Pueblo, New Mexico
Agenda-at-a-Glance
(Continued)

Thursday, November 29, 2007
7:30 am – 5:00 pm	Meeting Registration and Information Desk	Mountainview Foyer
7:30 am – 8:15 am	Continental Breakfast	Pre-Function Area
8:30 am – 9:15 am	Keynote Address: USA Freedom Corps	Tamaya Ballroom
9:15 am – 10:15 am	Plenary Session: Indian Country Corrections: Working Today for a Safer and Better Tomorrow	Tamaya Ballroom
10:15 am – 10:30 am	Break
10:30 am – 11:45 am	Workshops	(See Pages 9-13 for Room)
11:45 am – 1:15 pm	Lunch (On your own)
1:15 pm – 2:30 pm	Workshops	(See Pages 9-13 for Room)
2:30 pm – 2:45 pm	Break
2:45 pm – 4:00 pm	Workshops	(See Pages 9-13 for Room)
4:00 pm – 4:15 pm	Break
4:15 pm – 5:00 pm	General Assembly Presentation and Closing	Tamaya Ballroom
5:00 pm	Adjourn – Dinner on your own
Friday, November 30, 2007
7:30 am – 4:30 pm	Meeting Registration and Information Desk	Mountainview Foyer
7:30 am – 8:00 am	Continental Breakfast	Pre-Function Area
8:00 am – 4:30 pm	2007 National Tribal Symposium on Sex Offender Management and Accountability	Tamaya ABCDE

Key:

	- Plenary Session
	- Workshops
	- Break

Government-to-Government Consultation Tuesday, November 27, 2007
7:30 am	Continental Breakfast
8:15 am	Invocation, Welcome, & Opening Remarks Joe Garcia, President National Congress of Native American Indians and Chairman, All Indian Pueblo Council
8:30 am – 12:15 pm	Morning Session Moderators: John Gonzales, Executive Director, Eight Northern Indian Pueblos Council, Inc., Secretary-Treasurer, All Indian Pueblo Council Eugenia Tyner-Dawson, Senior Advisor to the Assistant Attorney General for Tribal Affairs, and Executive Director, Justice Programs Council on Native American Affairs Jerry Gidner, Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs
8:30 am – 8:45 am	Tribal Leader Introductions
8:45 am – 9:15 am	Update and Follow-up from Previous Consultation Sessions
9:15 am – 12:15 pm	Topic 1: Detention and Corrections Issues in Indian Country Subtopics: Facilities Construction and Maintenance; Detention Officer Training and Staffing; Rehabilitation and Re-entry Services; Inmate Health Care; Abuse/Sexual Assault Protocols; Juvenile Issues
12:15 pm – 1:15 pm	Working Lunch (Provided) Topic 2: Future Topics for Consultation Facilitator: Jacqueline Johnson, Executive Director, National Congress of American Indians <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Data collection and developing measures of success (PART, GPRA, etc) • Mental health needs of returning veterans • Federal law enforcement response on tribal lands • Other
1:15pm – 4:30 pm	Topic 3: Small Business Administration Possible Reforms to Native Participation in Government Contracting Programs Moderators: Jacqueline Johnson, Executive Director, National Congress of American Indians William H. Largent, Assistant Administrator, Office of Native American Affairs, U.S. Small Business Administration
4:30 pm	Closing Jacqueline Johnson, Executive Director, National Congress of American Indians Eugenia Tyner-Dawson, Senior Advisor to the Assistant Attorney General for Tribal Affairs, and Executive Director, Justice Programs Council on Native American Affairs William H. Largent, Assistant Administrator, Office of Native American Affairs, U.S. Small Business Administration

Tribal Justice and Safety
Government-to-Government Consultation, Training, and Technical Assistance

Wednesday, November 28, 2007
7:30 am – 5:00 pm	Meeting Registration and Information Desk	Mountainview Foyer
7:30 am – 8:15 am	Continental Breakfast	Pre-Function Area
8:30 am – 9:15 am	Traditional Opening	Tamaya Ballroom
	Color Guard: Eugene Paytiamo, American Legion 116, Pueblo of Acoma Traditional Opening: Governor Michael T. Sandoval, San Felipe Pueblo Welcome Remarks: Governor Ron Montoya, Santa Ana Pueblo Governor Raymond Gachupin, Jemez Pueblo Rodger Boyd, Deputy Assistant Secretary, Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Moderators: Laura Ansera, Tribal Youth Coordinator, Office of Policy Development, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, U.S. Department of Justice Jay T. Barton, National American Indian Housing Council
9:15 am – 10:15 am	Plenary Session: Effectively Navigating Grants.gov	Tamaya Ballroom
	Panelists: Amy Callaghan, Deputy Director, Grants Management Division, Office of Audit and Assessment Management, U.S. Department of Justice Kathleen Sample, Team Leader, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Robert S. Kroll, Deputy Administrator, Southwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
10:15 am – 10:30 am	Break
10:30 am – 11:45 am	WORKSHOPS
	Grants Management/Financial Management Kathleen Sample, Team Leader, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services The Division of Grants Management will present the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration’s pre-application process, from introducing the applicant to the PHS-5161-1 (Application for Federal Assistance) to the completion of the document. In addition, the session will provide the applicant with knowledge regarding how the application is reviewed internally by this office prior to funding and explain some of the typical post award requirements of the grant. The participants will be walked through the SAMHSA website from the announcement phase to submission of the application.	Badger A
	Weaving the Fabric of Community Using Various Federal Funding Sources Beverly Watts Davis, Senior Policy Advisor, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services This workshop introduces the attendees to grant writing tips and how to write successful Federal grants. This session will explore the various Federal funding grants and how to leverage them to meet the comprehensive needs of a Tribal community.	Badger B
	Indian Alcohol and Substance Abuse Program (IASAP) – Funding Opportunity Robert H. Brown, Jr., Senior Policy Advisor for Tribal Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice Margaret Flores, Tribal Program Manager, Fox Valley Technical College The Bureau of Justice Assistance administered IASAP provides funding and technical assistance to federally recognized tribal governments to comprehensively plan, implement, and enhance tribal justice strategies, to address crime issues related to alcohol and substance abuse. In FY 2008, the program continues its attention on controlling and preventing the growing methamphetamine problem in Indian Country. This workshop will discuss solicitation requirements, tribal obligations, key program objectives, technical assistance essentials and strategies for developing a successful application.	Badger C
	Suicide Prevention Funding Opportunity Tarsha M. Wilson, Public Health Advisor, Center for Mental Health Services, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services This workshop will highlight the Garrett Lee Smith Memorial State/Tribal Youth Suicide Prevention and Early Intervention grant program. Ms. Wilson will provide a detailed overview of Suicide Prevention activities in which Tribes and Tribal organizations are currently being funded, and will describe the range of grant activities and organizations. Additional information and resources will be provided in response to participant’s questions and needs.	Hawk A
	How to Apply for an OJP Solicitation Amy Callaghan, Deputy Director, Grants Management Division, Office of Audit and Assessment Management, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice A representative of the Office of Justice Programs (OJP) will walk you through the steps to creating an application in response to an OJP solicitation.	Hawk B

Tribal Justice and Safety
Government-to-Government Consultation, Training, and Technical Assistance

Wednesday, November 28, 2007 (Cont'd.) 10:30 am – 11:45 am WORKSHOPS
Survey of Jails in Indian Country, Part 1: Current Statistics and the 2007 Collection Todd Minton, Statistician, Corrections Statistics Program, Bureau of Justice Statistics, U.S. Department of Justice The Bureau of Justice Statistics will discuss a survey about the history of Jails in Indian Country. Information from the 2004 Jails in Indian Country report will be discussed. At the close of the session, the workshop facilitator and data collection staff will be available to help individuals complete their 2007 data collection form.	Hawk C
HUD Funding Opportunities Andrea Dunyon, Loan Guarantee Coordinator, Southwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Kevin Fitzgibbons, Administrator, Southwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Robert Kroll, Deputy Administrator, Southwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development This panel will review and discuss various loan and grant programs available through HUD's Office of Native American Programs to construct and rehabilitate community facilities and housing for Native American communities. These programs may be leveraged with other public and private funding sources. ONAP believes that good quality housing is a key step in building healthy communities, and the majority of HUD programs are housing related. However, community facilities such as detention centers and certain drug elimination programs can also be funded through HUD. Programs that will be discussed include Indian Housing Block Grant, Indian Community Development Block Grant, Section 184 Loan Guarantees, Title VI Loan Guarantees, and Rural Housing and Economic development.	Wolf A
Winning Strategies for Seeking and Obtaining Federal Grants Full-day Workshop Michael Koscinski, Project Officer, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Want to boost your success rate at obtaining federal grants? This workshop will provide you with winning strategies on how to seek, plan and write a federal grant application. Beginners will learn what they need to be successful. Experienced grant writers will gain new insight and sharpen their skills. All who attend will affirm their value, and leave with a sense of renewed confidence in their abilities and mission.	Wolf B
Bringing OJJDP Resources to Indian Country Brecht Donoghue, Program Manager, Demonstration Programs Division, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, U.S. Department of Justice Cecilia Duquela, Program Manager, Child Protection Division, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, U.S. Department of Justice Linda Rosen, Program Manager, State Relations and Assistance Division, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, U.S. Department of Justice Representatives from the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention's Demonstration Programs Division, Child Protection Division and State Relations Division will provide information and answer questions about current OJJDP programs. The objective of this panel is to provide American Indian and Alaska Native tribes and communities with information about specific OJJDP programs, including information about funding opportunities and requirements for accessing funds.	Wolf C
Prosecuting Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Cases in Federal Courts Leslie A. Hagen, Assistant United States Attorney, SMART Office, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice The federal government prosecutes crimes of domestic violence and sexual assault occurring in Indian Country. This presentation will cover applicable federal offenses, to include the General Crimes Act, the Major Crimes Act, and crimes created by the Violence Against Women Act. Investigation of these offenses and the Federal Rules of Evidence will also be covered.	Puma A
Pretrial Release Decision Making in Tribal Courts – Exploring the Utility of Pretrial Service Daniel B. Ryan, Consultant, Pretrial Justice Institute The Bureau of Justice Assistance of the U.S. Department of Justice has awarded a cooperative agreement with the Pretrial Justice Institute to work with tribal justice leaders to address overcrowded conditions in tribal jails through the implementation of more effective pretrial release decision-making procedures. This session will include a brief overview of pretrial services and will elicit information from tribal representatives to discuss the potential of developing culturally appropriate pretrial program protocols in tribal courts.	Puma B
11:45 am – 1:15 pm Lunch (On your own)
Wednesday, November 28, 2007 1:15 pm – 2:30 pm WORKSHOPS
Strategic Prevention Framework – Five Step Interconnected Prevention Planning Model Jon Dunbar-Cooper, Public Health Advisor, Center for Substance Abuse Prevention, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services This presentation will focus on the 5-step logic model of the Strategic Prevention Framework State Incentive Grant (SPF SIG). It will address the importance of conducting a needs assessment to ensure that funds go to communities with the greatest need.	Badger A
CSAT Targeted Capacity Expansion Grant Program Kenneth W. Robertson, Team Leader, CJ Programs, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration This workshop will provide an overview of the FY 2008 CSAT Targeted Capacity Expansion (TCE) Program announcement which is scheduled for release in late October 2007. Participants will learn about TCE, a grant program designed to expand/enhance substance abuse treatment services for identified populations, including Tribes and Tribal organizations. Participants will come away from the workshop with an understanding of the purpose of the program, who is eligible, the number of awards available, the amount per year of individual awards and specific requirements of the program and applicants. The presenter will answer questions from the audience about this treatment services program.	Badger B
Tribal Courts Assistance Program – Funding Opportunity Robert H. Brown, Jr., Senior Policy Advisor for Tribal Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice Michelle Rivard Parks, Deputy Director, Tribal Judicial Institute, University of North Dakota Law School The Bureau of Justice Assistance administered TCAP helps develop new tribal courts, improve the operations of existing tribal courts, and provides funding for technical assistance and training of tribal court staff. This workshop will discuss FY 2008 solicitation requirements, tribal obligations, key program objectives, technical assistance essentials and strategies for developing a successful application.	Badger C
Drug Endangered Children, A National Priority Ronald V. Mullins, Instructor Specialist, Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, U.S. Department of Homeland Security This workshop will cover the short and long term consequences of children subjected to caregivers who manufacture, sell or use drugs in the home. This workshop will also discuss the best practices for the rescue, sheltering, defending and supporting of the tribe's children who have been identified as Drug Endangered Children.	Hawk A

Tribal Justice and Safety
Government-to-Government Consultation, Training, and Technical Assistance

Wednesday, November 28, 2007 (Cont'd.) 1:15 pm – 2:30 pm WORKSHOPS
Office on Violence Against Women: What's in Store for 2008? Lorraine Edmo, Tribal Deputy Director, Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice Kathy Howkumi, Grant Manager, Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice Kimberly Woodard, Grant Manager, Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice This workshop will give an overview of the Grants to Tribal Governments Program for 2008. Program application requirements will be reviewed by Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) staff in preparation for the release of the FY 2008 solicitation. In FY 2007, OVW awarded 82 new grants to Indian tribes and Alaska Native villages. Staff will highlight key changes in the Violence Against Women Act of 2005 and also provide an update on 2007 activities.	Hawk B
Weed and Seed: Overview and FY 2009 Guidelines Norena Henry, Native American Program Officer, Community Capacity Development Office, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice Judith Heath, Director, Tribal Social Services, Keweenaw Bay Indian Community Mark Roscoe, Senior Advisor, Community Capacity Development Office, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice Weed and Seed is a comprehensive multi-agency, community-based strategy for revitalizing designated high-crime areas. It is designed to "Weed" out crime and "Seed" the community with social and economic revitalization. It also assists in establishing prototypes of effective law enforcement and social programming. The program goals are 1) to reduce gun and violent crime, and drug-trafficking, and 2) to provide a safer environment, free from crime and drug use, for law-abiding citizens to live, work and raise families. This session will provide a program history and overview and information on the status of the FY 2009 application process. Presentations will be made by CCDO staff and a tribal grantee.	Hawk C
HUD Funding Opportunities Andrea Dunyon, Loan Guarantee Coordinator, Southwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Kevin Fitzgibbons, Administrator, Southwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Robert Kroll, Deputy Administrator, Southwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development This panel will review and discuss various loan and grant programs available through HUD's Office of Native American Programs to construct and rehabilitate community facilities and housing for Native American communities. These programs may be leveraged with other public and private funding sources. ONAP believes that good quality housing is a key step in building healthy communities, and the majority of HUD programs are housing related. However, community facilities such as detention centers and certain drug elimination programs can also be funded through HUD. Programs that will be discussed include Indian Housing Block Grant, Indian Community Development Block Grant, Section 184 Loan Guarantees, Title VI Loan Guarantees, and Rural Housing and Economic Development.	Wolf A
Winning Strategies for Seeking and Obtaining Federal Grants Full-day Workshop Michael Koscinski, Project Officer, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Want to boost your success rate at obtaining federal grants? This workshop will provide you with winning strategies on how to seek, plan and write a federal grant application. Beginners will learn what they need to be successful. Experienced grant writers will gain new insight and sharpen their skills. All who attend will affirm their value, and leave with a sense of renewed confidence in their abilities and mission.	Wolf B
Tribal Youth Program Funding Opportunities and Accessing Tribal Youth Training and Technical Assistance Laura Ansera, Tribal Youth Coordinator, Office of Policy Development, Office of Juvenile Justice & Delinquency Prevention, U.S. Department of Justice Stephanie Autumn, Project Director, Education Development Center, Tribal Youth T/TA Center OJJDP seeks to enhance law enforcement in Indian Country and improve the quality of life in tribal communities as a means to address these problems. Since fiscal year 1999, OJJDP has awarded cooperative agreements to federally recognized tribes throughout the nation to develop and implement culturally sensitive delinquency prevention programs, alcohol and substance abuse prevention programs, interventions for court involved youth, improvements to the juvenile justice system and mental health services. Through set aside funds, TYP also has available training and technical assistance support to tribal programs. This workshop will help you learn about solicitation requirements, tribal obligations, key program objectives, technical assistance essentials, and strategies for developing a successful application.	Wolf C
Tips for Writing a Successful Drug-Free Communities Grant 2-part Workshop Ivette Ruiz, Tribal Public Health Advisor, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services The Drug-Free Communities (DFC) program provides grants to community organizations that serve as catalysts for citizen participation in local drug prevention efforts. Coalitions are comprised of diverse groups of people, including community leaders, parents, youth, teachers, religious and fraternal organizations, health care and business professionals, law enforcement and the media. DFC funds will support community coalition projects operating in 49 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. The goal of all the 736 local coalitions is to work together to prevent and reduce drug, alcohol, and tobacco use among youth.	Puma A
Forensic Interviewing of Children/Adolescent Victim/Witnesses 2-part Workshop Stephanie Knapp, Child Interview Specialist-Indian Country, FBI, Denver Division This 2.5 hour session will provide attendees with an introduction to Child Forensic Interviewing and the methods of conducting proper interviews, specifically considering the unique challenges investigators face in Indian Country. Many issues are associated with the investigation of crimes against children, specifically medical, social, and legal. These issues impact the context, manner, time and location a Child Forensic Interview is conducted and will be discussed during the session.	Puma B
2:30 pm – 2:45 pm Break

Tribal Justice and Safety
Government-to-Government Consultation, Training, and Technical Assistance

Wednesday, November 28, 2007 (Cont'd.) 2:45 pm – 4:00 pm WORKSHOPS
Pretrial Release Decision Making in Tribal Courts – Exploring the Utility of Pretrial Service Daniel B. Ryan, Consultant, Pretrial Justice Institute The Bureau of Justice Assistance of the U.S. Department of Justice has awarded a cooperative agreement with the Pretrial Justice Institute to work with tribal justice leaders to address overcrowded conditions in tribal jails through the implementation of more effective pretrial release decision-making procedures. This session will include a brief overview of pretrial services and will elicit information from tribal representatives to discuss the potential of developing culturally appropriate pretrial program protocols in tribal courts.	Badger A
CSAT Screening, Brief Intervention, Referral & Treatment (SBIRT) Program Kenneth W. Robertson, Team Leader, CJ Programs, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services This workshop will provide an overview of the FY 2008 CSAT Screening, Brief Interventions, and will announce the Referral to Treatment (SBIRT) Program scheduled for release in late October 2007. Participants will learn about CSAT's previous SBIRT program, a grant program designed to expand and enhance State/Tribal substance abuse treatment service systems. Participants will leave the workshop with an understanding of the purpose of the program, who is eligible to apply, the number of awards available, the amount per year of individual awards, and specific requirements of the program and of applicants.	Badger B
Construction of Correctional Facilities on Tribal Lands Discretionary Grant Program Robert H. Brown, Jr., Senior Policy Advisor for Tribal Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice Shelley Zavlek, President, Justice Planners International The Construction of Correctional Facilities on Tribal Lands Discretionary Grant Program, administered by the Bureau of Justice Assistance, furthers the Department of Justice's efforts to assist tribes in developing effective strategies to plan, construct and/or renovate correctional facilities associated with the incarceration and rehabilitation of juvenile and adult offenders that are subject to tribal jurisdiction. This workshop will discuss FY 2008 solicitation requirements, tribal obligations, key program objectives, technical assistance essentials, and strategies for developing a successful application.	Badger C
Sexual Assault Panel Lorraine A. Parlange, Tribal Attorney, Kalispel Tribe of Indians Ricki Peone-Haugen, MSW, NCPGCH, Director of Behavioral Health Services, Camas Path for the Kalispel Tribe of Indians Jim Wyncoop, Director of Public Safety, Kalispel Tribe of Indians This session will include a panel dialog regarding the challenges faced in Indian Country in the delivery of justice, the coordination of services to survivors of sexual assault, and one Tribal community's response. The panel will discuss problems resulting from the lack of a coordinated response to sexual assaults stemming, in part, from complex jurisdictional issues which can lead to impeded criminal investigations and a lack of federal prosecutions. A discussion of how this lack of a timely response can impact the delivery of services to victims and long term consequences (i.e. increased instances of untreated post-traumatic stress disorder) will take place. The panel will conclude with a discussion of the holistic approach implemented by the Kalispel Tribe of Indians in response to these challenges, including the coordinated efforts of social workers, law enforcement and the legal department.	Hawk A
Laying the Foundation for a Coordinated Community Response to Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, and other Violent Crimes Pam Moore, Y.E.S. Project Director, American Indian Resource Center, Inc. A survey of Tribal law enforcement officers, prosecutors, and victim advocates revealed the need for specialized online training to improve safety and justice for victims of violent crimes, as well as to increase offender accountability. We will review the results of the survey and discuss sexual assault and domestic violence investigations, understanding victim behavior, safety planning for victims, and enforcement of protection orders. This workshop will discuss how collaborative thinking and training can help your community lay the cornerstone of the foundation for your coordinated community response to violent crime. This is a highly interactive workshop with opportunity for discussion.	Hawk B
Survey of Jails in Indian Country, Part 2: Listening Session on Future Surveys of Jails in Indian Country Todd Minton, Statistician, Corrections Statistics Program, Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice Cynthia Helba, Ph.D., Senior Study Director, Westat Craig Love, Ph.D., Senior Study Director, Westat This workshop is an opportunity for jail administrators, facility staff, tribal leaders and others to share their ideas about the type of additional information that might be collected in the 2008 and 2009 Surveys of Jails in Indian Country. In addition, facilitators will seek input on ways to improve the data collection process and the dissemination of the reports and data that stem from this collection. The workshop will also include a brief overview of how jail administrators and tribal leaders can access and use the data collected from facilities in Indian Country, by Bureau of Justice Statistics, over the last nine years. Facilitators will demonstrate how to access the data over the internet and provide all the necessary internet links in handouts. At the close of the session, the workshop facilitators will be available to help individual facilities complete their 2007 data collection activities or to answer questions.	Hawk C
HUD Funding Opportunities Andrea Dunyon, Loan Guarantee Coordinator, Southwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Kevin Fitzgibbons, Administrator, Southwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Robert Kroll, Deputy Administrator, Southwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development This panel will review and discuss various loan and grant programs available through HUD's Office of Native American Programs to construct and rehabilitate community facilities and housing for Native American communities. These programs may be leveraged with other public and private funding sources. ONAP believes that good quality housing is a key step in building healthy communities, and the majority of HUD programs are housing related. However, community facilities such as detention centers and certain drug elimination programs can also be funded through HUD. Programs that will be discussed include Indian Housing Block Grant, Indian Community Development Block Grant, Section 184 Loan Guarantees, Title VI Loan Guarantees, and Rural Housing and Economic Development.	Wolf A
Winning Strategies for Seeking and Obtaining Federal Grants Full-day Workshop Michael Koscinski, Project Officer, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Want to boost your success rate at obtaining federal grants? This workshop will provide you with winning strategies on how to seek, plan and write a federal grant application. Beginners will learn what they need to be successful. Experienced grant writers will gain new insight and sharpen their skills. All who attend will affirm their value, and leave with a sense of renewed confidence in their abilities and mission.	Wolf B

Wednesday, November 28, 2007 (Cont'd.) 2:45 pm – 4:00 pm WORKSHOPS

Performance Measures: What, Why, How?

Wolf C

Janet Chiancone, Research Coordinator, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice
Pattie San Antonio, Senior Evaluation Specialist, CSR, Inc.

This session will provide participants with an understanding of why program performance measures are important to OJP, its bureaus and program offices, and will also show why they are useful for those who develop and implement crime and delinquency prevention and intervention programs. Included will be an overview of how performance measures are defined, and how performance is used in making federal funding appropriations and grant decisions. The workshop will also work through an example with participants in developing a program logic model and identifying the most appropriate performance measures for their program activities.

Tips for Writing a Successful Drug Free Communities Grant 2-part Workshop

Puma A

Ivette Ruiz, Tribal Public Health Advisor, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

The Drug-Free Communities (DFC) program provides grants to community organizations that serve as catalysts for citizen participation in local drug prevention efforts. Coalitions are comprised of diverse groups of people, including community leaders, parents, youth, teachers, religious and fraternal organizations, health care and business professionals, law enforcement and the media. DFC funds will support community coalition projects operating in 49 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. The goal of all the 736 local coalitions is to work together to prevent and reduce drug, alcohol, and tobacco use among youth.

Forensic Interviewing of Children/Adolescent Victim/Witnesses 2-part Workshop

Puma B

Stephanie Knapp, Child Interview Specialist-Indian Country, FBI, Denver Division

This 2.5 hour session will provide attendees with an introduction to Child Forensic Interviewing and the methods of conducting proper interviews, specifically considering the unique challenges investigators face in Indian Country. Many issues are associated with the investigation of crimes against children, specifically medical, social, and legal. These issues impact the context, manner, time and location a Child Forensic Interview is conducted and will be discussed during the session.

4:00 pm – 4:15 pm Break

4:15 pm – 5:15 pm General Assembly Presentation:
Children and Youth Collaboration Panel

Tamaya Ballroom

Afternoon Moderators:

George Thurman, Principal Chief, Sac and Fox Nation
Lorraine Edmo, Tribal Deputy Director, Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice

Panel Facilitator:

Stephanie Birdwell, Chief, Division of Human Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Department of the Interior

Panelists:

Larke Huang, Ph.D, Senior Advisor on Children, Office of the Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration
John Ratmeyer, M.D., FAAP, Deputy Chief of Pediatrics, Medical Consultant to the Child Protection Team, Gallup Indian Medical Center, Indian Health Service
Regina Schofield, Managing Director for Public Policy, Casey Family Programs
Carlette Randall, Acting Managing Director for Indian Child Welfare, Casey Family Programs
Matthew A. Mohr, Supervisory Special Agent, Indian Country Special Crimes Unit, Federal Bureau of Investigations

6:15 pm – 7:30 pm Tribal Networking Session

Tribal Justice and Safety
Government-to-Government Consultation, Training, and Technical Assistance

Thursday, November 29, 2007
7:30 am – 5:00 pm	Meeting Registration and Information Desk	Mountainview Foyer
7:30 am – 8:15 am	Continental Breakfast	Pre-Function Area
8:30 am – 9:15 am	Keynote Address: USA Freedom Corps Henry Lozano, Deputy Assistant to President and Director of the USA Freedom Corps Morning Moderator: Eric Broderick, D.D.S., M.P.H, Rear Admiral, United States Public Health Service, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Diane Enos, President, Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community	Tamaya Ballroom
9:15 am – 10:15 am	Plenary Session: Indian Country Corrections: Working Today for a Safer and Better Tomorrow Facilitator: Patrick Ragsdale, Deputy Bureau Director, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Department of the Interior Panelists: Valerie Lavender, Chief of Detention, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Department of the Interior Robert H. Brown, Jr., Senior Policy Advisor for Tribal Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice Chairman Kyle R. Prior, Shoshone Paiute Tribe of Duck Valley Honorable BJ Jones, Chief Judge, Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate and Prairie Island Indian Community, Executive Director, Tribal Judicial Institute and Law Professor, University of North Dakota School of Law Perry M. Mitchell, Chief Administrator, Department of Rehabilitation & Supervision, Gila River Indian Community	Tamaya Ballroom
10:15 am – 10:30 am	Break
10:30 am – 11:45 am	WORKSHOPS
	Starting a Boys & Girls Club Program in Indian Country Mark Piccirilli, President, FirstPic, Inc. Maggie Gurley, Chief Professional Officer, Boys & Girls Clubs of Green Country, OK Ron Gurley, Project Manager, Native American Programs, FirstPic, Inc. This workshop is designed for community representatives, tribal leaders, and TDHEs who are interested in, or are in the process of, starting a local Boys & Girls Club. A focus will be placed on the various program options offered by Boys & Girls Clubs of America for Native American communities. Over 200 Boys & Girls Clubs currently exist in Indian Country, serving more than 140,000 young people. Visit www.naclubs.org for more information about these programs and other special initiatives.	Badger B
	Indoor Air Quality/Healthy Tribal Communities Kate Brown, Housing Research Specialist, Building Research Council at the University of Illinois People spend 65% to 90% of their time indoors. Research shows that people live healthier, fuller lives in homes that are well ventilated, dry, and free of mold, pests, and dangerous gases. This workshop will discuss indoor air quality concerns and strategies to prevent unhealthy indoor air.	Badger C
	Methamphetamine Awareness Mark DeCouteau, Chief of Training, Indian Police Academy, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Department of the Interior Brian Gilliam, Special Agent, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Department of the Interior This workshop will discuss Meth Training opportunities, an overview of the training conducted in FY 2007, the training schedule for FY 2008 and information on how to request training for your area.	Hawk A
	Weed and Seed: Indigenous Planning Norena Henry, Native American Program Officer, Community Capacity Development Office, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice Theodore Jojola, Regent's Professor, School of Architecture and Planning, University of New Mexico This session will provide an overview of Indigenous Planning. Indigenous Planning is a new and emerging paradigm among planners that practice on tribal lands. What distinguishes it from mainstream applications, such as comprehensive planning, is its reformulation of this approach in a manner that incorporates "traditional" knowledge and cultural identity. In addition to basic planning land-use tools, indigenous planning also incorporates concepts that are based on values associated with land tenure. Participants will learn about the role of planning in tribal community development, historical experiences by federal and state agencies to assist tribes in planning, and be introduced to some case studies in Indian Country. They will also learn about new ways to incorporate indigenous planning techniques and principles into current federal and tribal initiatives.	Hawk B

Tribal Justice and Safety
Government-to-Government Consultation, Training, and Technical Assistance

Thursday, November 29, 2007 (Cont'd.) 10:30 am – 11:45 am WORKSHOPS
2008 Tribal Criminal History Record Improvement Program (T-CHRIP): Improving AFIS Electronic Fingerprinting and Information System Management	Hawk C
Steven W. Perry, Statistician, Bureau of Justice Statistics, U.S. Department of Justice Ada Pecos Melton, President/Owner, American Indian Development Associates This workshop will discuss how the gathering of statistics on crime and the administration of justice in Indian Country and improving tribal data systems will enable tribal jurisdictions to better manage justice resources, develop crime prevention programs and participate in national information systems. The Tribal Criminal History Record Improvement Program (T-CHRIP) was created to improve public safety in Indian Country by enhancing the quality, completeness, and accessibility of criminal history record information and by facilitating the implementation of criminal justice and non-criminal justice background check systems. Preliminary program results, as well as the proposed FY 2008 announcement and its objectives will be discussed in this session. This workshop will also explore Tribal Criminal History Records; cultural approaches to tribal records; types of records (e.g. fingerprint, domestic violence, sex offender); and Justice Information System Management. The American Indian Development Associates will discuss a multi-jurisdictional approach and development of tribal and State cooperative relationships to establish a long-term State-based Tribal Justice Information System. Variations in the types of grant recipients, tribal cultural perspectives in technological infrastructure and long-term tribal record automation, justice agency integration, and information sharing processes will also be discussed during this workshop.
History and Development of the AMBER Plan	Wolf A
Mark Simpson, Consultant, Fox Valley Technical College This presentation will include a PowerPoint presentation on the history and development of the AMBER Plan and it's applicability as an investigative resource in the investigation of abducted children.
Planning and Operating State-of-the-Art Correctional Facilities in Indian Country	Wolf B
Honorable BJ Jones, Executive Director, Tribal Judicial Institute and Law Professor, University of North Dakota School of Law Tyler Lastiyano, Corrections Administrator, Pueblo of Zuni Shelley Zavlek, President, Justice Planners International Since 2002 BJA has awarded over $90 million through the Construction of Correctional Facilities on Tribal Lands Discretionary Grant Program to 26 American Indian and Alaska Native tribes to build new detention and correctional facilities or renovate existing facilities. As of Fall 2007, 18 of these tribes have completed construction of their facilities and eight are actively engaged in various stages of design, construction and/or renovation. This workshop will begin with a slideshow presenting various features of the new facilities. The workshop will then address two key components of planning new correctional facilities in Indian Country: 1) Planning within the community to assess the need for secure facilities and ways to limit over-reliance on secure detention; and 2) Innovative ways to fund creative correctional programming in Indian Country.
Tribal Wellness Courts	Wolf C
Dale Brien, Program Director, Healing to Wellness Court, Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indians Jerry Gardner, Executive Director, Tribal Law & Policy Institute Donna Humetewa, Tribal Courts Project Director, Hopi Tribe This session will examine the current state of Wellness Courts (Drug Courts) in Indian Country, how those Courts were started, their goals and objectives and their effectiveness in responding to drug and alcohol crimes in Indian Country. There will be some preliminary data regarding drug courts in Indian Country, which will be released by the Tribal Judicial Institute based upon a study underway, by Glacier Inc. The presenters will be persons working in Tribal Drug Courts and will give first-hand experiences on how these courts have impacted Tribal Communities.
Methamphetamine Lab Identification	Puma A
Jay T. Barton, Training and Technical Assistance Specialist, National American Indian Housing Council Being able to recognize an illicit methamphetamine lab is the number one component in keeping communities safe. With over 15 different recipes that can be used in the production of methamphetamine, meth labs can be difficult to identify. A detailed look into six major components of meth labs will provide workshop participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to simplify the identification process.
Overview of IHS Behavioral Health Activities	Puma B
Wilbur Woodis, Office of Clinical and Preventive Services, Division of Behavioral Health, Indian Health Service Headquarters East This workshop will review IHS national behavioral health activities, with topics including methamphetamine, suicide and telepsychiatry.
11:45 am – 1:15 pm Lunch (On your own)
Thursday, November 29, 2007 (Cont'd.) 1:15 pm – 2:30 pm WORKSHOPS
TRAUMA: Programs, Training Can Establish Healing Partnerships	Badger A
Jeanette Barnes, Consumer Liaison for Children, Youth, Families & Tribes, Washington Mental Health Transformation Project Steve Williams, Warden, Dorchester County Department of Corrections The intent of this workshop is to help Tribal Law Enforcement officers better understand the effects of abuse trauma. It will discuss trauma as it relates not only to those who are survivors but also as it relates to the presenter's personal experiences. It will bring a tribal community perspective in providing guidance on trauma-informed approaches to law enforcement officers' work. The speakers will also look at the layers of assimilation with regard to historical trauma and the effects it has in Indian Country.
Accessing Training and Technical Assistance for OVW Grantees: How it Can Work for You	Badger B
Lorraine Edmo, Tribal Deputy Director, Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice Tina Olson, Project Coordinator, Mending the Sacred Hoop Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) tribal grantees are often in need of technical advice and assistance in designing and implementing their domestic violence, sexual assault, teen dating violence or stalking grant. This workshop will explore options available to grantees who need help in their project design or who may have questions about their current project scope and objectives. An OVW technical assistance provider will be present, along with OVW staff to answer questions and provide feedback on developing projects.

Tribal Justice and Safety
Government-to-Government Consultation, Training, and Technical Assistance

Thursday, November 29, 2007 (Cont'd.) 1:15 pm – 2:30 pm WORKSHOPS
Multi-Jurisdictional Approach to Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Kathryn Chapman, Executive Director, Golden House Dan House, Sergeant, Oneida Police Department Shaun Morrow, State Probation/Parole Agent and Department of Corrections Liaison Agent, Oneida Nation Gene Red Hail, Coordinator, Oneida Domestic Violence and Oneida Coordinated Community Response Carrie Schneider, District Attorney, Outagamie County District Attorney's Office Oneida Coordinated Community Response (C.C.R.) Team members from Brown & Outagamie Counties and the Oneida Tribe will present a panel discussion on the nine-year C.C.R. relationship around the issues of domestic violence and sexual assault.	Badger C
Utilizing Interoperability to Improve Public Safety in Indian Country Moderator: Chris Chaney, Deputy Director, Office of Indian Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Department of the Interior Panelists: Ada Pecos Melton, President/Owner, American Indian Development Associates Stuart Ott, Deputy Chief, Enterprise Infrastructure Division, Office of the Chief Information Officer, US. Department of the Interior Ben Standifer, Chief Information Officer, Tohono O'odham Nation The panelists will discuss the concept of interoperability and how it can be used to improve emergency response, law enforcement and disaster management in Indian Country. Panelists will discuss both the "hardware" side of improving communication systems and the institutional "culture" changes that may be needed to improve chances for successful implementation. Success stories will be discussed so that attendees will have examples of best practice models to consider.	Hawk A
Weed and Seed: Strategies on Law Enforcement and Community Policing Ronald P. Lopez, Law Enforcement Coordinator, U.S. Attorney's Office – District of New Mexico Donovan Trujillo, Chief of Police, Ohkay Owingeh Tribal Police Department Mark Rogers, Police Officer, Leech Lake Tribal Police This session will provide participants with information on various law enforcement and community policing strategies, from prevention to intervention, by Indian tribes participating in Weed and Seed or Public Housing Safety Initiatives.	Hawk B
Tribal Criminal History Record Improvement Program: Improving Tribal Court Databases Steven W. Perry, Statistician, Bureau of Justice Statistics, U.S. Department of Justice William S. Gregory, Prosecutor, Little Traverse Bay Band of Odawa Indians Destin Richter, Consultant, Aventure Technology The Tribal Criminal History Record Improvement Program (T-CHRIP) was created to improve public safety in Indian Country by enhancing the quality, completeness, and accessibility of criminal history record information and by facilitating the implementation of criminal justice and non-criminal justice background check systems. Preliminary program results from the T-CHRIP grants, as well as the proposed FY 2008 announcement and objectives will be discussed in this session. In 2004, the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians (LTBB) received a T-CHRIP grant. Like most, Michigan tribes do not share their criminal history records with other tribes or with the State of Michigan. A glaring deficiency in the current state of affairs in Indian Country is the inability of local tribal law enforcement officials to learn about an Indian suspect's criminal history on other Indian reservations. The immediate problem encountered in visiting the various tribes was the lack of adequate databases in most tribal courts: domestic violence, sex offenders, and firearm background checks. In 2007 the LTBB received a third T-CHRIP grant for the purchase of Live Scan finger print machines for all Michigan tribes who currently lack these machines. The various types of tribal court databases that have been created for Michigan tribes will also be discussed during this workshop.	Hawk C
AMBER Alert in Indian Country Ron Gurley, Project Manager, Native American Programs, FirstPic, Inc. Michael Guilfoyle, Technical Assistance Specialist, FirstPic, Inc. Jim Walters, Detective Sergeant, Southern Methodist University; AMBER Alert Liaison for the Northeast United States, and Consultant, Fox Valley Technical College This session will provide an opportunity to discuss the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs AMBER Alert in Indian Country Program. The background and process of bringing the AMBER Alert program to Indian Country will be discussed. This workshop will examine the scope of the program, target sites and process for implementation. Considerations for expanding AMBER Alert into Indian Country and the availability of training and technical assistance opportunities will be included in the presentation.	Wolf A
Planning a Brighter Future for Indian Country Corrections Honorable BJ Jones, Executive Director, Tribal Judicial Institute and Law Professor, University of North Dakota School of Law Tyler Lastiyano, Corrections Administrator, Pueblo of Zuni Daniel B. Ryan, Consultant, Pretrial Justice Institute Shelley Zavlek, President, Justice Planners International In September 2006, the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) and the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) collaborated to conduct a three-day Tribal Working Group in Albuquerque, New Mexico on Planning for the Future of Corrections and Detention in Indian Country. Participants in the forum included BJA and BIA management personnel, representatives of 10 tribes that had recently built and opened new correctional facilities and national experts on Indian Country jails. Based on the Tribal Working Group presentations, workshops and participant feedback, preliminary recommendations for the future of detention and corrections in Indian Country were drafted. This workshop will present the preliminary recommendations developed by the Tribal Working Group, followed by an open forum to seek feedback and additional ideas and input from workshop attendees. The results of this session will be shared with BJA, BIA and all workshop attendees.	Wolf B

Tribal Justice and Safety
Government-to-Government Consultation, Training, and Technical Assistance

Thursday, November 29, 2007 (Cont'd.) 1:15 pm – 2:30 pm WORKSHOPS
Indian Country Methamphetamine Initiative	Wolf C
Trudy Anderson, National Project Coordinator, Indian Country Methamphetamine Initiative The Department of Health and Human Services sponsored the Indian Country Methamphetamine Initiative (ICMI) in direct response to regional and national Tribal Consultation sessions. Methamphetamine was voiced by Tribes nationwide as a high priority needing to be addressed promptly. The DHHS – Office of Minority Health launched the Indian Country Methamphetamine Initiative at the National Congress of American Indians annual conference, October 2006. The Navajo Nation, Eastern Band of Choctaw Indians, Winnebago Tribe, Crow Tribe, and Northern Arapaho Tribes were the first demonstration projects identified to begin a three-year endeavor to highlight their activities. Tribes will identify what works in their projects, what lessons were learned in the implementation, and how it can be easily replicated in other Tribal communities. United Southern and Eastern Tribes, Inc. and Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board were identified to create a survey tool to collect baseline data much needed throughout Indian Country regarding Methamphetamine use and the social fallout related to its usage. One Sky Center, Inc., and the National Congress of American Indians were identified to provide technical assistance, create a Tribal Meth Toolkit, and a media campaign. This Workshop will focus on the Tribal activities in Year 1 of the Indian Country Methamphetamine Initiative.
Leveraging Federal and Local Resources to Implement the Adam Walsh Act	Puma A
Jacqueline O'Reilly, SMART Office, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice This session will highlight resources available through the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs (OJP), Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), to assist States, local jurisdictions and tribes to facilitate implementation and enhancement of sex offender management strategies and practices. Topics will include how to apply for grants to support sex offender management efforts, as well as training and technical assistance resources. In addition to BJA initiatives, this session will emphasize other OJP funding sources that can be leveraged to assist with managing sex offenders and complying with provisions under the Adam Walsh Act of 2006.
Child Abuse and Neglect – Prevention Strategies	Puma B
John Ratmeyer, M.D, FAAP, Deputy Chief of Pediatrics, Gallup Indian Medical Center, Indian Health Service Child Abuse and Neglect (CAN) is a national problem. This presentation will discuss how to develop community prevention strategies to address the issue.
2:30 pm – 2:45 pm Break
Thursday, November 29, 2007 (Cont'd.) 2:45 pm – 4:00 pm WORKSHOPS
SAMHSA Prevention Strategies: CSAP HIV & Methamphetamine Prevention Programs	Badger A
Jeanne Diloreto, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services This workshop will provide an overview of the Center for Substance Abuse Prevention's Minority HIV/AIDS Initiative (MAI) and Methamphetamine Program. An introduction to SAMHSA's Strategic Prevention Framework (SPF) will also be included.
Project Safe Pueblos (PHSI) Prevention Strategy Implementation	Badger B
Moderator: Ronald P. Lopez, Law Enforcement Coordinator, U.S. Attorney's Office – District of New Mexico Panelists: Johnny Abeyta, Sr., Lt. Governor, Santa Clara Pueblo Donovan Trujillo, Chief of Police, Ohkay Owingeh Pueblo Alvin Warren, Lt. Governor, Santa Clara Pueblo This session will provide participants with information on various prevention and intervention strategies being implemented by the Santa Clara and Ohkay Owingeh Pueblos through participating in Weed and Seed and the Public Housing Safety Initiative.
Crime Prevention through Environmental Design	Badger C
Kate Brown, Housing Research Specialist, Building Research Council at the University of Illinois Graffiti covered buildings, run down housing, and vandalism are problems for many Tribal communities. The purpose of this session is to discuss how to improve the safety of Tribal communities with Crime Prevention through Environmental Design (CPTED). CPTED is based on the concept that proper design and effective use of landscaping can help reduce crime and improve the quality of life in the Tribal community. This workshop will discuss how key CPTED strategies can be applied to Tribal communities.
BIA Corrections	Hawk A
Carla C. Flanagan, Associate Director for Corrections, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Department of the Interior Valerie Lavender, Chief of Detention, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Department of the Interior Office of Justice Services staff members will provide participants with an overview of the past, present, and future of Bureau of Indian Affairs Corrections.
Weed and Seed: Strategies on Neighborhood Restoration for Tribal Communities	Hawk B
Mark Roscoe, Senior Advisor, Community Capacity Development Office, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice Tracey Fischer, Manager of Institution Development, Oweesta Corporation William Guevara, Director, Institution Development, First Nations Oweesta Corporation Judith Heath, Director, Tribal Social Services, Keweenaw Bay Indian Community This session will introduce participants to economic development strategies that help Native communities to create an environment in which tribal enterprises, tribal member-owned businesses and homeownership initiatives can stimulate local economies and restore communities. These strategies include supporting the creation of strong institutions, such as Community Development Financial Institutions, which provide access to affordable capital, enhancing legal infrastructure for commercial transactions, and implementing asset building programs such as personal financial education. Oweesta representatives will share strategies based on its Native growth models, and the Keweenaw Bay Indian Community representative, a Weed and Seed grantee, will share what led the community to apply for the Weed and Seed program and their strategies for Neighborhood Restoration, goals and expectations. Participants will be able to identify different activities that would be useful for their community's economic development purposes.
Methamphetamine Lab Identification	Hawk C
Jay T. Barton, Training and Technical Assistance Specialist, National American Indian Housing Council Being able to recognize an illicit methamphetamine lab is the number one component in keeping communities safe. With over 15 different recipes that can be used in the production of methamphetamine, meth labs can be difficult to identify. A detailed look into six major components of meth labs will provide workshop participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to simplify the identification process.

Tribal Justice and Safety
Government-to-Government Consultation, Training, and Technical Assistance

Thursday, November 29, 2007 (Cont'd.) 2:45 pm – 4:00 pm WORKSHOPS
Methamphetamine Enforcement Training & Technical Assistance for Tribal Communities Initiative Ron Gurley, Project Manager, Native American Programs, FirstPic, Inc. Jim Walters, Fox Valley Technical College This presentation will inform tribal law enforcement and community leaders about upcoming regional trainings for the Methamphetamine Enforcement Training & Technical Assistance for Tribal Communities Initiative. Training and technical assistance will address: Resources Available for Interdiction, Investigative Strategies, Forensic Techniques, Clandestine Lab Detection, Clean-up and Safety, Demand Reduction Strategies, and Task Force Development.	Wolf A
Improving Sexual Assault Investigations in Indian Country Duston J. Whiting, Special Agent, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Department of the Interior Agent Whiting brings a cultural perspective to many years of experience in Indian Country. A brief overview of traditional investigations will be tweaked with ideas on improving facets they didn't tell you about at the academy. Agent Whiting will provide criminal justice personnel with a framework of ideas and resources they can utilize to improve their investigations and job satisfaction.	Wolf B
Project Venture, A Native American Developed Model Program Neal Ferris, Project Venture Coordinator, National Indian Youth Development Project McClellan Hall, Executive Director, National Indian Youth Development Project This workshop will present an overview of Project Venture, an evidence-based Model Program, developed by, for, and with Native American youth, adults and elders. The presentation will cover the basic elements of the program, how the National Indian Youth Leadership Project assesses the readiness of sites who want to implement the program, describe the "non-negotiables" of the program, and address other areas of interest.	Wolf C
Technical Assistance Resources for Information Sharing and Practical Approaches to Managing Information Sharing Projects Owen Greenspan, Director, Law and Policy Program, SEARCH, The National Consortium for Justice Information and Statistics Mark Perbix, Justice Information Systems Specialist, SEARCH, The National Consortium for Justice Information and Statistics Technical assistance may be broadly defined as help in addressing a wide range of problems or issues spanning policy questions to procuring and implementing information technology. This session will ask participants to help structure a new technical assistance program for Indian Country. It will also provide guidance for strategic planning and project management when undertaking information technology projects for justice applications.	Puma A
Historical Trauma – It's Impact on Prevention and Treatment Joseph B. Stone, Ph.D., SAC Level III, ICADC, CADC Level III, Clinical Psychologist-Behavioral Health Services, Gallup Indian Medical Center, Indian Health Service This workshop focuses on historical and intergenerational antecedents to the high rates of psychiatric and substance abuse disorders. Participants will examine the correlation between oppression, economic status and family function as a shaping mechanism for relational attachment.	Puma B
4:15 pm – 5:00 pm General Assembly Presentation and Closing Moderators: Steven W. Perry, Statistician, Bureau of Justice Statistics, U.S. Department of Justice Joe A. Garcia, President, National Congress of American Indians and Chairman, All Indian Pueblo Council Dennis Greenhouse, Director of the Office of Community Capacity Development, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice Eric Broderick, D.D.S., M.P.H., Rear Admiral, United States Public Health Service, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Traditional Closing: Joe A. Garcia, President, National Congress of American Indians and Chairman, All Indian Pueblo Council	Tamaya Ballroom
5:00 pm Adjourn – Dinner on your own

2007 National Tribal Symposium on Sex Offender Management and Accountability
Friday, November 30, 2007

7:30 am – 8:00 am	Registration
7:30 am – 8:00 am	Continental Breakfast
8:00 am – 8:45 am	Welcome and Introductions Leslie A. Hagen, Assistant U.S. Attorney, SMART Office, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice Traditional Opening Lt. Governor Alvin Warren, Jr., Santa Clara Pueblo Welcome from New Mexico, USA Larry Gomez, Acting U.S. Attorney, District of New Mexico Welcome from New Mexico, USM Gorden Eden, U.S. Marshal, District of New Mexico Welcome from National Congress of American Indians President Joe Garcia, National Congress of American Indians
8:45 am – 9:45 am	An Overview of SORNA and What the Act Means for Indian Country Virginia Davis, Associate Counsel, National Congress of American Indians Leslie A. Hagen, Assistant U.S. Attorney, SMART Office, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice
9:45 am – 10:30 am	National Sex Offender Registry (NSOR) Venetia A. King, Management and Program Analyst, Criminal Justice Information Services, Federal Bureau of Investigations Garnet Tucker, Management and Program Analyst, Criminal Justice Information Service, Federal Bureau of Investigations
10:30 am – 10:45 am	Break
10:45 am – 11:15 am	Dru Sjodin National Sex Offender Public Website David Lewis, Senior Policy Advisor, Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice
11:15 am – 12:15 pm	U.S. Marshals Service Sex Offender Apprehension Initiatives Kristen Anderson, Deputy Director, National Center for Missing and Exploited Children Jim Burrell, Supervisory Deputy, U.S. Marshals Service Mark West, Sex Offender Investigations Coordinator, U.S. Marshals Service
12:15 pm – 1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 pm – 1:30 pm	Keynote Address Thomas E. Moss, U.S. Attorney for the District of Idaho
1:30 pm – 3:00 pm	Implementing SORNA: Tribal Codes and Cooperative Agreements Sarah Deer, JD, Victim Advocacy Legal Specialist, Tribal Law and Policy Institute Pablo H. Padilla, JD, Nordhaus Law Firm, LLP
3:00 pm – 3:15 pm	Break
3:15 pm – 4:00 pm	Pre-Release Planning/Prisoner Re-Entry Michelle C. Spidell, Pretrial and Probation Administrator, Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts
4:00 pm – 4:30 pm	Wrap up and Traditional Closing Chair, Tribal Justice Advisory Group Leslie A. Hagen, Assistant U.S. Attorney, SMART Office, Office of Justice Programs, US Department of Justice