The Fund may also enter into securities lending and borrowing trades, repurchase and reverse repurchase transactions, sell and buy-back and buy and sell-back transactions, margin lending arrangements and other similar transactions ("Securities Financing Transactions") in pursuit of the Fund's investment strategy.]

The Fund may enter into Derivative Transactions and/or Securities Financing Transactions with the Prime Brokers and/or other brokers and/or counterparties (each a "Trading Counterparty"). The Fund will only enter into Derivative Transactions and Securities Financing Transactions with Trading Counterparties which the AIFM believes to be creditworthy and which are subject to prudential supervision. In determining such creditworthiness, the AIFM will have regard to any credit rating of the relevant Trading Counterparty and/or the availability of any guarantee and/or collateral cover. Trading Counterparties may be entitled to receive a fee or commission in respect of any Derivative Transaction or Securities Financing Transaction executed by the Fund, which may be reflected in the economics of the relevant transaction.

The Fund's collateral and asset re-use arrangements vary between Trading Counterparties:

- (A) The Fund's current collateral and asset re-use arrangements with the Prime Brokers are described in the section headed "SERVICE PROVIDERS: Prime Brokers" below.
- (B) The Fund may be required to deliver collateral from time to time to its Trading Counterparties (other than the Prime Brokers) under the terms of the relevant trading agreements, by posting initial margin and/or variation margin and on a daily mark-to-market basis. The Fund may also deposit collateral as security with a Trading Counterparty as broker. The treatment of such collateral varies according to the type of transaction and where it is traded. Under transfer of title or re-use arrangements, the cash, securities and other assets deposited as collateral will generally become the absolute property of the Trading Counterparty when the collateral is deposited or, as the case may be, at the time of re-use and the Fund will have a right to the return of equivalent assets. There are generally no restrictions on the re-use of collateral by such Trading Counterparties. A right to the return of equivalent assets will normally be unsecured and the collateral will be at risk in the event of the insolvency of the Trading Counterparty. Collateral may also be held by the Fund subject to a security interest given in favour of the Trading Counterparty and, in some cases, other members of the Trading Counterparty's group. Where collateral is held on a security interest basis, the Fund will retain a residual interest in the collateral subject to a charge in favour of the Trading Counterparty and, where applicable, other members of its group as security for the Fund's obligations to the Trading Counterparty (and, where applicable, other members of its group). Generally, on the insolvency of the Trading Counterparty, while the Fund will retain its residual interest in the collateral, this may be subject to stays of action, delays and/or additional charges as part of the insolvency process.
- (C) The Fund may enter into Derivative Transactions and/or Securities Financing Transactions under which it is not entitled to require the delivery by its Trading Counterparties of collateral as security for the Fund's counterparty exposure. Where the Fund enters into arrangements under which it is entitled to receive collateral as security, the collateral posted will typically be calculated on a daily mark-to-market basis. It is anticipated that such collateral will generally be restricted to cash and/or high quality government bonds which will (where relevant) be held by the Prime Brokers in their capacity as sub-custodians for the Fund as described under "SERVICE PROVIDERS: Prime Brokers" below.]

There are no restrictions on the Fund's exposure to Derivative Transactions or Securities Financing Transactions.

The AIFM's policy on dealing commissions is set out under "GENERAL INFORMATION: Use of Dealing Commissions" below. Subject to this, the AIFM is not entitled to any fee or commission from any person other than the Fund in connection with the Fund's investments in Derivative Transactions and Securities Financing Transactions.

Compliance Function and Money Laundering Reporting Officer

The AIFM shall take such measures as it considers necessary or desirable to ensure compliance by the Fund with applicable laws and requirements. Responsibility for compliance will, ultimately, rest with the AIFM. The AIFM is responsible for ensuring compliance with AIFMD. The AIFM is responsible for compliance with the requirements of the Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Regulations and the Implementing Procedures and for the carrying out of the measures specifically assigned to Notified AIFs as per the framework applicable to such funds. [Drafting Note: Identify the role of the Administrator, if any, in relation to the money laundering reporting function.]

Depositary

Pursuant to the Depositary Agreement, [●] has been appointed to provide the following services in respect of the Fund.

Safe-keeping of the Fund's financial instruments

The Depositary holds in custody all of the Fund's financial instruments and ensures that all of the Fund's financial instruments that can be registered in a financial instruments account opened in the Depositary's books are registered in the Depositary's books within segregated accounts opened in the name of the Fund, so that they can be clearly identified as belonging to the Fund.

Monitoring of Cash Flows

The Depositary ensures that the Fund's cash flows are properly monitored, that all payments made by or on behalf of unitholders upon their subscription for Units have been received and that all the Fund's cash has been booked in cash accounts opened in the name of the Fund at a central bank, an EU bank or a similar entity authorised in a third country.

Asset Verification

The Depositary verifies the Fund's ownership of its assets which are not financial instruments based on information or documents provided by the AIFM and where available, external evidence, and maintains updated records of those assets for which it is satisfied that the Fund holds the ownership of such assets.

General Oversight

The Depositary is also responsible for the oversight of the valuation, issue and redemption of Units and application of the Fund's income.

The Depositary is required to ensure that the sale, issue, repurchase, redemption and cancellation of Units, the calculation of the net asset value of the Units and the application of the income of the Fund are carried out in accordance with applicable law, the Fund's Deed of Constitution and this Offering Memorandum. Further, the Depositary must ensure that in transactions involving the Fund's assets any consideration is remitted to the Fund within the usual time limits in the context of the conditions attached to the transactions.

Under the terms of the Depositary Agreement, the Depositary has undertaken to exercise due skill, care and diligence in the discharge of its duties. The Depositary will be liable to the Fund or to its investors for the loss by the Depositary or any sub-custodian appointed by the Depositary in respect of any of the Fund's financial instruments which are held in custody (the "Loss of Financial Instrument Liability"). In the case of the loss of such a financial instrument:

- (i) the Depositary will be required to return a financial instrument of identical type or the corresponding amount to the Fund without undue delay;

- (ii) the Depositary will not be liable if it can prove the loss arose as a result of an external event beyond its reasonable control, the consequences of which would have been unavoidable despite all reasonable efforts to the contrary; and
- (iii) the Depositary will be liable to the Fund, or its investors, for all other losses suffered by them as a result of the Depositary's fraud, negligence or intentional failure to properly fulfil its obligations under the Depositary Agreement and the AIFMD.

The Depositary may act through sub-custodians, agents or any other third party which the Depositary may, in its discretion, deem necessary. Notwithstanding that the Depositary's liability will not be affected by any such delegation in a case of a loss of the Fund's financial instruments held by a third party pursuant to Article 21(11) of the AIFMD, the Depositary may discharge itself of liability if it can prove that:

- (i) all requirements for the delegation of its custody tasks set out in the second subparagraph of Article 21(11) of the AIFMD have been met; and
- (ii) a written contract between the Depositary and the third party expressly transfers the liability of the Depositary to the third party and makes it possible for the AIFM to make a claim against the third party in respect of the loss of financial instruments held in custody or for the Depositary to make such a claim on their behalf.

[Drafting Note: Include disclosure regarding liability, indemnity and termination. Also consider any further appropriate disclosure as to sub-custodians including as to identity.]

Participation in the Fund

General Provisions

The Fund is reserved for investment by Professional Investors [and Qualifying Investors].

The participation in the Fund is not subject to conditions, restrictions or liens of any nature other than those indicated in the present Regulation.

By investing, each investor represents and warrants that, among other things, he is able to invest without violating applicable laws, especially the rules and regulations aiming to prevent money laundering. The AIFM will not knowingly offer or sell Units to any investor to whom such offer or sale would be unlawful. Investment is confined to eligible investors who can provide the representations and warranties contained in the Application Form.

The AIFM reserves the right to accept, reject or place conditions on subscription applications if, inter alia, it does not receive evidence satisfactory to it that the sale of Units to such an investor will not result in a risk of legal, regulatory, pecuniary, taxation or material administrative disadvantage to the Fund, or its unitholders or to the AIFM [or the Investment Manager].

The AIFM reserves and intends to exercise the right at its discretion compulsorily to redeem or require the transfer of any Units, inter alia, if the continued ownership of such Units by any person could result in a risk of legal, regulatory, pecuniary, taxation or material administrative disadvantage to the Fund, Unitholders [or the Investment Manager].

[The AIFM may in its discretion close one or more classes to investment by new investors or to further subscriptions.]

[U.S. Persons and U.S. Taxpayers]

[Investment is not permitted in the Fund by U.S. Persons or U.S. Taxpayers, where specified in the relevant Supplement.] [Drafting Note: if investment will be permitted generally by U.S. Persons and U.S. Taxpayers, include appropriate disclosure here as advised by your U.S. counsel.]

Verification of identity

The AIFM has appointed [●] as its money laundering and reporting officer to the Fund under the Prevention of Money Laundering and Funding of Terrorism Regulations. It shall be his duty to ensure that the Fund complies with its obligations under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act and the applicable regulations.

Measures aimed towards prevention of money laundering, may require a subscriber to verify his identity (or the identity of any beneficial owner on whose behalf the subscriber intends to hold the Units) and the source of funds to the [AIFM]. This obligation is absolute unless: (i) the application is being made via a regulated credit or financial institution; or (ii) payment is made to or from an account held in the subscriber's name with a banking institution, which in either case is in a country which is a member of the Financial Action Task Force. If alternative (i) applies, the AIFM may seek to obtain written assurance of the subscriber's (or beneficial owner's) identity from the relevant institution.

The AIFM reserves the right to request such documentation as it deems necessary to verify the identity of the subscriber and to verify the source of the relevant money. Failure to provide the necessary evidence may result in applications being rejected or in delays in the despatch of documents and/or the issue of Units. Where an application is rejected, subscription money will be returned, subject to the anti-money laundering rules and regulations, without interest to the account from which it was received at the risk of the subscriber. Any interest earned on such sums will accrue to the Fund. The AIFM will be held harmless by a potential subscriber against any loss arising as a result of a failure to process a subscription or redemption request if such information as has been requested has not been provided by the subscriber.

The AIFM also reserves the right to refuse to make any redemption payment if it suspects or is advised that the payment might result in a breach of applicable anti-money laundering or other laws or regulations by any person in any relevant jurisdiction or if such refusal is considered necessary or appropriate to ensure the compliance by the AIFM with any such laws or regulations in any applicable jurisdiction.

Subscription for Units

[Drafting Note: where the Fund has a predetermined duration and a specific subscription, insert in this paragraph all the relevant information]

The participation in the Fund is subject to either the subscription for Units or their subsequent acquisition. The subscription of Units is subject to the payment of an amount corresponding to the value of the Units (net of any fees or costs).

Applications for Units may be made in respect of each Dealing Day. The relevant payment must be received by the [AIFM] not later than [Drafting Note: insert relevant hour] [●] Business Days prior to the relevant Dealing Day.

The number of Units that should be allocated to each investor is determined by [the AIFM] by dividing the amount of the payment, after deducting the fees and costs charged to each investors, by the unit value on the relevant Valuation Day.

In the interests of equality, the AIFM may (a) adjust the price at which subscriptions are effected to reflect such sum as they may consider represents the appropriate pro rata provision for duties and charges which would be incurred on the assumption that all the investments held were to be acquired on the relevant Valuation Day and/or (b) determine that the net asset value of a class be calculated on the basis of offer prices for long positions and bid prices for short positions.

[In case of subscription of Units resulting from the reinvestment of profits/income distributed by the Fund, the Valuation Day must be the same as that in respect of payment of such profits/income.]

The subscription can be made [] [Drafting Note: insert method of subscription, e.g. directly to the AIFM or Administrator; through other distributors; by remote communication technologies.].

The Units may be subscribed for by way of a duly completed and signed Application Form, in the form required by the AIFM and addressed to the same, containing the following information:

- the personal data of the investor and of any co-holders;
- the amount of the payment (inclusive of the subscription fees and of any other expenses);
- the method of payment used and the relevant value date assigned for the actual transfer of the amounts to the Fund.

[Drafting Note: If the Units can be subscribed also by the assignment of a mandate to the distributors, complete this paragraph with all the relevant information.]

The payment by the investors can be made by [Drafting Note: complete with the relevant information, e.g. bank cheque or bank draft; the bank transfer.].

[Drafting Note: include the following provision only if appropriate] The Units can be subscribed for by way of remote communication technologies, in compliance with the provisions of the applicable laws and/or regulations. In such event, only [Drafting Note: complete with the relevant information, e.g. bank transfers] can be used as means of payment for the subscription. The Units issued in such manner shall be included in the cumulative certificate.

Payments

If the payment is made in a currency other than the base currency of the Fund, the relevant amount shall be converted into the base currency. The exchange rate shall be either the rate recorded by the Central Bank of Malta or the European Central Bank on the date of reference, or such other rate as [the AIFM] in its reasonable discretion shall determine.

If the payment is unsuccessful, [the AIFM] will liquidate any Units allocated and obtain redress on the proceeds and the applicant will have no claim in respect of the same against the Fund or [the AIFM].

Letter of confirmations

For each subscription, [the AIFM] shall send the subscriber a letter of confirmation of the investment, containing the following information:

- [the date of the receipt of the subscription request and the means of payment;

- the gross amount paid and the net amount invested;
- the number of Units assigned, the relevant unit value of Units and the Valuation Day to which such value refers.]

[Subscription of Units through Savings plans][Drafting Note: Include this section as relevant.]

The subscription of the Units can take place by joining Savings plan [Drafting Note: indicate the name of the Plan, if any] (the “Plan”) that allows the investor to allocate the investment in the Fund over time.

In order to join the Savings Plan, it is necessary to sign a specific form, indicating (i) the total value of the investment, (ii) the number of payments and/or the duration of the Plan; (iii) the Unit amount and the periodicity of the payments; (iv) the amount corresponding to [Drafting Note: indicate the relevant number.] payments, to be paid upon the subscription. The Plan shall provide for periodical payments, whose number can be decided by the investor from a minimum of [Drafting Note: indicate the relevant number.] payments to a maximum of [Drafting Note: please indicate the relevant number.] payments.

The minimum amount of each payment shall be equal to or a multiple of [indicate the relevant amount], inclusive of the subscription costs. The investor can make advance payments within the Plan at any time, provided that such payments are multiples of the unit payment chosen.

With reference to the Savings Plans, the investor is entitled to suspend or discontinue the payments and will not be charged with any additional cost in that respect.

The letter of confirmation of the investments shall be sent upon the first payment and, subsequently, on a [Drafting Note: indicate the relevant timing.] basis only in the relevant period in which the payments are made.

The investor may vary the plan at any time, by changing the residual period of validity of the Plan, the amount of each of the following payments, the periodicity of the payments.

The orders of modification of the plan shall be notified [Drafting Note: insert the relevant information.].

If necessary, the AIFM is entitled to recalculate the nominal value of the plan and the total fees due as well as the new fees to be charged to the residual payments. In any event, no refund of fees shall be made.

[Switching]

[An investor shall be entitled to subscribe for Units of other funds/sub-funds managed by the AIFM simultaneously with the redemption of Units.

[The operation of transfer between funds/sub-funds can be carried out directly or through the distributors, who shall transmit the relevant requests within the [Drafting Note: complete with the relevant timing].]

The operations of transfer between funds/sub-funds can be carried out upon [Drafting Note: complete with the relevant methods, e.g. a written request or through the use of remote communication technologies].

Once verified that the Units of the chosen funds/sub-funds are available, the AIFM shall carry out the operation of transfer between the funds/sub-funds in accordance with the following procedures [Drafting Note: complete with the relevant information.]

Transfers

All transfers of Units will be effected by written instrument signed by the transferor and containing the name and address of the transferee and the number of Units being transferred or in such other manner or form and subject to such evidence as the AIFM shall consider appropriate. The transfer will take effect on registration of the transferee as holder of the Units. The transferee will be required to give the representations and warranties contained in the Application Form. The AIFM may in its absolute discretion decline to register any transfer of Units without assigning any reason. There is no fee to investors for the registration of transfers.

Units and Participation Certificates

The certificates [Drafting Note: indicate whether they are registered certificates or bearer certificates] may be issued for a whole number of Units and/or for fractions thereof.

The [Depository], upon instructions from the AIFM, shall make available to investors the certificates, in the places indicated in the Key Information part of the present Offering Memorandum, from [●] Business Days following relevant Dealing Day.

The [Depository] shall be entitled, at no cost to the Fund to split the cumulative certificate, for the purpose of segregating the rights of the individual investors.

The investor is entitled to request that his Units, included in the cumulative certificate, are transferred in a custody account held in his name. [Such account, however, shall imply the payment of the costs indicated in the relevant contract, which the investor shall sign separately, as well as of the relevant tax charges under the applicable laws.]

The investors may also request that the certificates are considered.

The delivery of the certificate to the investor can be postponed for the time required to verify the successful payment, but in any event within [Drafting Note: insert the relevant timing].

Unit Value and its Publication

The unit value of the Units is calculated on each Dealing Day by dividing the total net value of the Fund by the number of Units.

In calculating the value of assets attributable to the Fund, the valuation shall be undertaken in accordance with the valuation policies and procedures approved, from time to time, by the AIFM. Under the valuation policy (as summarized below), discretions may be exercised and determinations made by the AIFM.

The [AIFM] will normally calculate the net asset value of each class of the Fund as at the close of business on each Valuation Day by deducting the total liabilities from the total assets of each class of the Fund. Total assets include the value of all investments held, the sum of any cash and accrued interest. Total liabilities comprise all liabilities including any borrowings, accrued expenses and any contingencies for which reserves are determined to be required. In calculating the value of the Fund's assets:

- [(a) securities traded on a stock exchange will be valued generally at the last reported trade quoted on such exchange or, if not available, at the mean between the exchange quoted bid and asked prices;
- [(b) any unlisted securities will be valued initially at cost and thereafter with any reduction or increase in value (as the case may be) in a manner determined by the AIFM to reflect the fair value thereof;
- [(c) forwards, futures, options, contracts for differences and any other synthetic instruments traded on an exchange will be valued at the last reported trading prices. Where such instruments are traded over-the-counter, they will be valued in a manner determined by the AIFM to reflect the fair value thereof; and

- (d) the value of any cash in hand or on deposit and accounts receivable, prepaid expenses and cash dividends accrued and not yet received will be deemed to be the full amount thereof, unless it is unlikely to be paid or received in full, in which case the value thereof will be arrived at after making such discount as the AIFM may consider appropriate to reflect the fair value thereof.]

There will be deducted all liabilities of the Fund and such provisions and allowances for contingencies (including tax) as the AIFM thinks appropriate and accrued costs and expenses payable by the Fund.

“Hard-to-value” securities include securities which have been delisted or suspended or which are not listed or quoted on a stock exchange. Such securities will be valued by the AIFM having regard to the cost prices, the price at which any recent transaction in the security may have been effected, the size of the holding having regard to the total amount of such security in issue and such other factors as the AIFM considers in its discretion.

The [AIFM] may follow some other prudent method of valuation other than that referred to above if it considers that in the circumstances such other method of valuation should be adopted to reflect more fairly the values of assets or liabilities.

The AIFM is entitled to exercise their reasonable judgement in determining the values to be attributed to assets and liabilities and, provided they are acting bona fide in the interest of the Fund a whole, such valuation is not open to challenge by current or previous investors.

No adjustment shall be made to the values of any assets unless the valuation error exceeds half a percentage point (0.5%) of the Fund’s net asset value, in which case it shall be adjusted.

The net asset value of the Fund and each class thereof and the net asset value per Unit is available from the [AIFM] upon request.

Suspension of the calculation of unit value of Units

The AIFM may suspend the calculation of the net asset value of the Fund and its Units (and the subscription for and/or redemption of Units) in cases of force majeure where such calculation cannot be carried out.

Once such force majeure situation has ceased, the [AIFM] will publish such value in accordance with the normal procedures.

Redemption of Fund’s Units

The investors in the Fund may at any time request from the AIFM the redemption of their Units, in full or in part as at any Dealing Day. The redemption can be suspended in the cases indicated by the law, by the present Offering Memorandum including during the suspension of the calculation of net asset value and during the operations of liquidation of the Fund.

The specific redemption request [jointly with the certificates representing the Units to be redeemed,] shall be sent to the [AIFM] directly [or by way of a distributor].

The application for redemption shall contain the following: (i) the name of the relevant Fund; (ii) the personal data of the applicant; (iii) the number of Units or, as an alternative, the amount to be redeemed; (iv) the chosen means of payment and the relevant instructions for the payment of the amount to be redeemed (provided that where the redemption proceeds are to be paid into an account other than the one from which subscription funds were received, such request must be provided in original form); (v) in case of a partial refund, where appropriate, the relevant instructions [with reference to the certificate representing the remaining Units]; and (v) any other information required by the applicable laws.

Redemption requests must be received no later than [●] Business Days prior to the relevant Dealing Day.

The value of the redemption shall be determined on the basis of the unit value on the Valuation Day in respect of the relevant Dealing Day in respect of which the redemption request is made.

[Please note that if at such date the value of the Units is not the amount, if any, requested for redemption by the investor, the relevant request shall be processed for the available amount.]

In the interests of equality, the AIFM may (a) deduct from the redemption proceeds such sum as it may consider represents the appropriate pro rata provision for duties and charges which would be incurred on the assumption that all the investments held were to be realised on the relevant Valuation Day and/or (b) determine that, when calculating redemption proceeds, the net asset value of a class be determined on the basis of bid prices for long positions and offer prices for short positions.

The AIFM shall pay the amount through the Depositary as soon as possible and not later than [●] days after the relevant Dealing Day, save for the cases of suspension of the unitholders' redemption right.

The AIFM shall be entitled to suspend the investors' redemption right, for a period not exceeding one month, in the event that the amount of the requests submitted, in relation to the market developments, require divestments that might result in a serious damage to unitholders.

The redemption requests submitted during the period of the aforementioned suspension will be deemed received at the end of such period.

The redemption will be made [by wire transfer to the account from which subscription funds were received].

[The AIFM may limit the value of redemptions made by unitholders in respect of any Dealing Day to [●] per cent. Of the total net asset value of the [unitholder's] Shares of the relevant Class then in issue. The AIFM may waive the gate, in whole or in part, in respect of any Dealing Day, at its discretion.]
[Drafting Note: Insert any alternative or varied gate terms.]

Planned redemption of Units

The investors may give specific instructions to the [AIFM] in order to obtain a planned redemption of Units. Please note that the investors shall indicate: (i) the initial Dealing Day for the redemption plan; (ii) the timing of redemption operations, please note that the period between two redemptions shall not exceed [●] Dealing Days; (iii) the amount to be divested, equal to predetermined amounts or amounts corresponding to a certain number of Units. Such amounts, in any event, shall not be lower than [please indicate the relevant amount]; and (iv) the investor's bank and the relevant account details.

The instructions for the planned redemption can be given either upon the subscription or subsequently. In this latter case, the instructions must be received by the [AIFM] by the notice period for redemptions in respect of the first Dealing Day.

The redemption proceeds shall be paid in respect of the relevant Dealing Day and in accordance with the procedures indicated. If at the relevant Dealing Day the value of the Units does not reach the full amount of the requested redemption, the relevant instruction [shall not be carried out or shall be carried out up to the available value of Units]. In such event the [AIFM] shall timely inform the investor.

The instructions for the planned redemption of Units will be valid until the relevant notice of revocation or modification from the investor is received by the [AIFM]. Please note that such notice must reach the [AIFM] within [Drafting Note: indicate the relevant notice period] prior to the next applicable Dealing

Day.

If the investor modifies or suspends the plan (or the value of the Units does not reach the amount of the planned redemption and, therefore, it is not possible to carry out the planned redemption) twice consecutively, the planned redemption(s) will be considered revoked.

In any event, the revocation of the planned redemption shall be at no additional cost to the investor.

The investor is entitled to request at any time further redemptions in respect of relevant Dealing Days subject to the applicable notice paid in addition to the planned ones.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Material Contracts

The following contracts, not being contracts in the ordinary course of business, have been entered into by the AIFM on or about the date of this Offering Memorandum and are or may be material. Information in relation to fees is contained under “Fees and Expenses” above. [Drafting Note: insert list of all material contract e.g. administration agreement, depositary agreement, MLRO Agreement.]

The AIFM may enter into further material contracts in respect of one or more Fund(s) as specified in the relevant Supplement.

The AIFM may in the future enter into marketing agreements with financial intermediaries approved by the AIFM. All of the agreements listed above may be amended from time to time by mutual consent of the parties thereto.

Legal Implications of Contractual Relationships with the Fund

The main legal implications of the contractual relationship entered into for the purpose of investment in the Fund are as follows: [Drafting Note: include disclosure in accordance with AIFMD.]

Fair Treatment of Investors and Investor Rights

[Drafting Note: insert disclosure of investor rights and any preferential rights, e.g. side letters in accordance with AIFMD.]

AIFM

[The AIFM holds professional indemnity insurance to cover professional liability risks. Under AIFMD, the AIFM has opted to increase its level of professional indemnity insurance rather than increase its holding of committed capital.]

Use of Dealing Commissions

[Drafting Note: Amend as appropriate.]

It is the normal policy of the [Investment] Manager to use full service brokerage houses, which will, in addition to routine order execution, provide a range of other services. The precise services will vary, but where the [Investment] Manager executes orders on behalf of the Fund through such a broker or other person, passes on that person’s charges to the Fund, and receives in return goods or services additional to that execution service, it will satisfy itself on reasonable grounds that such additional goods and services: (i) are directly related to the execution of trades on behalf of its customers or comprise the provision of substantive research; (ii) will reasonably assist the [Investment] Manager in the provision of its services to the Fund; and (iii) do not, and are not likely to, impair the [Investment] Manager’s compliance with its duty to act in the best interests of the Fund. Such goods and services might include, by way of example, research in the form of periodic and one-off newsletters, reports and market analyses, and execution facilities such as access to particular markets or trading forums, execution software, market-making, block trading and stock-lending facilities, trade confirmation and settlement services, and execution-related information and advice.

The reasons for selecting individual brokers will vary, but will include factors such as the quality of research, financial security, quality and range of execution services, charges, and reliability and responsiveness to client demands. In some cases the value of the services provided may depend upon a minimum threshold of broker commissions or a percentage of such commissions. The receipt of these benefits assists the [Investment] Manager in providing a better service to its clients but also assists it in containing its costs and ultimately its charges to clients. The [Investment] Manager is able to enter into such arrangements and obtain such benefits, inter alia, due to its ability to deal collectively and aggregate transactions on behalf of clients and obtain benefits which would not be available to an individual investor.

[The [Investment Manager] will provide the Fund with periodic disclosure and the investors with disclosure upon request, in accordance with the [insert relevant rules], of the arrangements entered into including details of the goods and services relating to execution and to substantive research, respectively.]

Reports and Financial Statements and Investor Reporting

- (a) The financial year of the Fund ends on [31 December] of each year, with the first financial period ending on [31 December 201[●]]. Annual audited financial statements will be prepared and sent to investors by post or electronically by e-mail to the address supplied by the investor for the giving of notices within six months of the end of the relevant financial period. When available, a copy of the most recent financial statements may be obtained by existing or prospective investors on request.

[U.S. Definitions

(a) U.S. Person

A “U.S. Person” for the purposes of this Regulation is a person who is in either of the following two categories: (a) a person included in the definition of “U.S. person” under Rule 902 of Regulation S under the 1933 Act or (b) a person excluded from the definition of a “Non-United States person” as used in CFTC Rule 4.7. For the avoidance of doubt, a person is excluded from this definition of U.S. Person only if he or it does not satisfy any of the definitions of “U.S. person” in Rule 902 and qualifies as a “Non-United States person” under CFTC Rule 4.7.

“U.S. person” under Rule 902 of Regulation S includes the following:

- (i) any natural person resident in the United States;
- (ii) any partnership or corporation organised or incorporated under the laws of the United States;
- (iii) any estate of which any executor or administrator is a U.S. person;
- (iv) any trust of which any trustee is a U.S. person;
- (v) any agency or branch of a non-U.S. entity located in the United States;
- (vi) any non-discretionary account or similar account (other than an estate or trust) held by a dealer or other fiduciary for the benefit or account of a U.S. person;
- (vii) any discretionary account or similar account (other than an estate or trust) held by a dealer or other fiduciary organised, incorporated or (if an individual) resident in the United States; and
- (viii) any partnership or corporation if:
 - (A) organised or incorporated under the laws of any non-U.S. jurisdiction; and
 - (B) formed by a U.S. person principally for the purpose of investing in securities not registered under the 1933 Act, unless it is organised or incorporated, and owned, by accredited investors (as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the 1933 Act) who are not natural persons, estates or trusts.

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, “U.S. person” under Rule 902 does not include: (i) any discretionary account or similar account (other than an estate or trust) held for the benefit or account of a non-U.S. person by a dealer or other professional fiduciary organised, incorporated, or (if an individual) resident in the United States; (ii) any estate of which any professional fiduciary acting as executor or administrator is a U.S. person, if (A) an executor or administrator of the estate who is not a U.S. person has sole or shared investment discretion with respect to the assets of the estate, and (B) the estate is governed by non-U.S. law; (iii) any trust of which any professional fiduciary acting as trustee is a U.S. person, if a trustee who is not a U.S. person has sole or shared investment discretion with respect to the trust assets, and no beneficiary of the trust (and no settlor if the trust is revocable) is a U.S. person; (iv) an employee benefit plan established and administered in accordance with the law of a country other than the United States and customary practices and documentation of such country; (v) any agency or branch of a U.S. person located outside the United States if (A) the agency or branch operates for valid business reasons, and (B) the agency or branch is engaged in the business of insurance or banking and is subject to substantive insurance or banking regulation, respectively, in the jurisdiction where located; and (vi) certain international organisations as specified in Rule 902(k)(2)(vi) of Regulation S under the 1933 Act, including their agencies, affiliates and pension plans. CFTC Rule 4.7 currently provides in relevant part that the following persons are considered “Non-United States persons”:

- (i) a natural person who is not a resident of the United States or an enclave of the U.S. government, its agencies or instrumentalities;*
 - (ii) a partnership, corporation or other entity, other than an entity organised principally for passive investment, organised under the laws of a non-U.S. jurisdiction and which has its principal place of business in a non-U.S. jurisdiction;*
 - (A) an estate or trust, the income of which is not subject to U.S. income tax regardless of source;*
 - (B) an entity organised principally for passive investment such as a pool, investment company or other similar entity, provided, that units of participation in the entity held by persons who do not qualify as Non-United States persons or otherwise as qualified eligible persons (as defined in CFTC Rule 4.7(a)(2) or (3)) represent in the aggregate less than ten per cent. of the beneficial interest in the entity, and that such entity was not formed principally for the purpose of facilitating investment by persons who do not qualify as Non-United States persons in a pool with respect to which the operator is exempt from certain requirements of Part 4 of the CFTC’s regulations by virtue of its participants being Non-United States persons; and*
 - (C) a pension plan for the employees, officers or principals of an entity organised and with its principal place of business outside the United States.*
- (b) U.S. Taxpayer*

“U.S. Taxpayer” includes: (i) a U.S. citizen or resident alien of the United States (as defined for U.S. federal income tax purposes); (ii) any entity treated as a partnership or corporation for U.S. federal tax purposes that is created or organised in, or under the laws of, the United States or any state thereof (including the District of Columbia); (iii) any other partnership that is treated as a U.S. Taxpayer under U.S. Treasury Department regulations; (iv) any estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. income taxation regardless of source; and (v) any trust over whose administration a court within the United States has primary supervision and all substantial decisions of which are under the control of one or more U.S. fiduciaries. Persons who have lost their U.S. citizenship and who live outside the United States may nonetheless, in some circumstances, be treated as U.S. Taxpayers. An investor who is not a U.S. Person may nevertheless be considered a “U.S. Taxpayer” under U.S. federal income tax laws. For example, an individual who is a U.S. citizen residing outside of the United States is not a “U.S. Person” but is a “U.S. Taxpayer”. Such a person need not complete the Supplemental Disclosure Form and Declarations for U.S. Persons, but the tax consequences described in this Regulation will apply to that person.]

[(c) Benefit Plan Investor

“Benefit Plan Investor” is used as defined in U.S. Department of Labor (“DOL”) Regulation 29 C.F.R. §2510.3-101 and Section 3(42) of ERISA (collectively, the “Plan Asset Rule”) and includes (i) any employee benefit plan subject to Part 4, Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA; (ii) any plan to which Code Section 4975 applies (which includes a trust described in Code Section 401(a) that is exempt from tax under Code Section 501(a), a plan described in Code Section 403(a), an individual retirement account or annuity described in Code Section 408 or 408A, a medical savings account described in Code Section 220(d), a health savings account described in Code Section 223(d) and an education savings account described in Code Section 530); and (iii) any entity whose underlying assets include plan assets by reason of a plan’s investment in the entity (generally because 25 per cent. or more of a class of equity interests in the entity is owned by plans). An entity described in (iii) immediately above will be considered to hold plan assets only to the extent of the percentage of the equity interests in the entity held by Benefit Plan Investors. Benefit Plan Investors also include that portion of any insurance company’s general account assets that are considered “plan assets” and (except if the entity is an investment company registered under the 1940 Act) also include assets of any insurance company separate account or bank common or collective trust in which plans invest.]

[BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR CONSIDERATION

[Drafting Note: ERISA disclosure for Benefit Plan Investor to be included to the extent relevant given the intended marketing universe of the Fund. Obtain US counsel confirmation as to wording.]

RISK FACTORS AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Risk Factors

The risks described herein are not an exhaustive list of the risks which potential investors should consider before investing in the Fund. Investment in a Fund carries with it a degree of risk. Different risks may apply to different Funds. Details of specific risks attaching to a particular Fund which are additional to those described in this section will be specified in the relevant Supplement. Prospective investors should review this Offering Memorandum and the relevant Supplement carefully in their entirety and consult with their professional and financial advisers before making an application for Units. There can be no guarantee that the investment objective of the Fund will be achieved and losses may be incurred.

[Drafting Note: comprehensive risk warnings appropriate to the Fund in general should be provided.]

The foregoing list of risk factors is not exhaustive.

Prospective investors should consult with their own professional advisors before deciding to subscribe.

Conflicts of Interest

The following inherent or potential conflicts of interest should be considered by prospective investors before investing:

[Drafting Note: The following wording is general in nature. Specific conflicts should be identified and explained.]

Other Clients - The AIFM, [Investment Manager,] Depository, [Prime Brokers, Administrator] and other service providers referenced in this Offering Memorandum (together the “Service Providers”) may act as general partner, manager, investment manager, broker, administrator, depositories, prime broker or investor or provide other services to other clients (including funds) now or in the future. The Service Providers will engage in other business activities. The Service Providers are not required to refrain from any other activity, to account for any profits from any such activity, whether as partners of additional investment companies or otherwise or to devote all or any particular part of the time and effort of any of its or their partners, officers, or employees to the Fund and its affairs. The investment objectives or strategies of such clients may be identical, similar or different to those of the Fund. There can be no assurance that the investment returns of the Fund will be similar or identical to the investment returns of any other fund managed by the AIFM [or Investment Manager]. Service Providers may additionally serve as consultants to or partners or shareholders in, other investment funds, companies and investment firms. Certain investments may be appropriate for the Fund and also for other clients advised or managed by the AIFM [and/or Investment Manager]. Investment decisions for the Fund and for such other clients are made with a view to achieving their respective investment objectives and after consideration of such factors as their current holdings, the current investment views of the different portfolio managers of the AIFM [and/or Investment Manager], availability of cash for investment, and the size of their positions generally. Frequently, a particular investment may be bought or sold for only the Fund or only one client or in different amounts and at different times for more than one but less than all clients, including the Fund. Likewise, a particular investment may be bought for the Fund or one or more clients when one or more other clients are selling the same security. In addition, purchases or sales of the same investment may be made for two or more clients, including the Fund, on the same date and mirror portfolios may be operated for other clients. In such event, such transactions will be allocated among the Fund and clients in a manner believed by the AIFM [and/or Investment Manager] to be equitable to each. Purchase and sale orders for the Fund may be combined with those of other clients of the AIFM [and/or Investment Manager]. In effecting transactions, it may not always be possible, or consistent with the possibly differing investment objectives of the various clients and of the Fund, to take or liquidate the same investment positions at the same time or at the same prices.

Interested Party Transactions – The Service Providers, any of their directors, officers, employees, agents and connected persons and the AIFM and any person or company with whom they are affiliated or by whom they are employed (each an “Interested Party”) may be involved in other financial, investment or other professional activities which may cause conflicts of interest with the Fund. In particular, Interested Parties may provide services similar to those provided to the Fund to other entities and will not be liable to account for any profit earned from any such services. For example, an Interested Party may acquire investments (on behalf of clients) in which the Fund may invest. However, where the AIFM [and/or Investment Manager] could (a) allocate an investment between two or more funds or accounts which it manages (including the Fund); or (b) make a disposal of investments held by two or more such funds or accounts, it will act fairly as between the relevant funds or accounts in making such allocation or disposal, having regard to, inter alia, factors such as cash availability and portfolio balance.

The Fund may acquire securities from or dispose of securities to any Interested Party or any investment fund or account advised or managed by any such person. An Interested Party may provide professional services to the Fund (but no Interested Party will act as auditor to the Fund or the Fund) or hold Units and buy, hold and deal in any investments for its own accounts notwithstanding that similar investments may be held by the Fund. An Interested Party may contract or enter into any financial or other transaction with any unitholder or with any entity any of whose securities are held by or for the account of the Fund, or may be interested in any such contract or transaction. Furthermore, any Interested Party may receive commissions to which such Interested Party is contractually entitled in relation to any sale or purchase of any investments of the Fund effected by it for the account of the Fund, if in each case the terms are no less beneficial to the Fund than a transaction involving a disinterested party and any commission is in line with market practice.

In the event of a conflict of interest arising, the AIFM will endeavour to ensure that it is resolved fairly.
