

School Counseling Plan

NYSED state law requires certified school counselor(s) design and develop school's counseling program in collaboration with school administration, teaching staff, student service, and other pupil personnel service providers. Provide the name and title of your school's counseling plan coordinator. Coordinator is responsible for developing this plan in collaboration with key school community members. The school counseling plan coordinator will also be responsible for attending OSYD professional development and revising the counseling plan based on changing student counseling needs and/or BCO Counseling Manager's feedback.

Contact your Director of Student Services if you do not have a certified counselor in the building.

School Counseling Program Vision. The school's counseling program vision statement communicates what the school hopes to see for students five to 15 years in the future. It aligns with the school's and DOE's vision statements and is informed by the school counseling program's beliefs.

For additional resources on how to draft your school's counseling vision and mission statement, see "The ASCA National Model: A Framework for School Counseling Programs" at <https://www.schoolcounselor.org/>

Our Counseling Vision is: To support the school's vision within an exciting and progressive learning environment. Collaborate with administrators, teachers, parents and community members to encourage, promote and help define the healthy development of our students in a safe nurturing environment while providing opportunities for students to explore interests, celebrate their individuality and promote reasoning skills, self-advocacy, confidence and knowledge.

Does your school offer a comprehensive School Counseling Activity? YES
