

California Business and Professions Code (B&P) 6061.7a requires a law school that is not approved by the American Bar Association to provide certain information on its website. Purdue Global Law School 6061.7a disclosure can be found under the admissions tab on our website: www.purduegloballawschool.edu

The State Bar of California has provided a template form to be used by law schools. In reviewing the information set out in this reporting form, please keep the following information in mind:

Admissions information

Purdue Global Law School has three first year classes each year. Purdue Global Law School does not require applicants to its JD program to sit for the LSAT, but Purdue Global Law School has its own 40-question online admissions test with a minimum score requirement. During the 2022-23 reporting year, approximately 40% of applicants who undertook the online test were disqualified from applying to the JD program for not meeting required admissions test scores.

Purdue Global Law School's transfer policy may be reviewed in the school catalog at <https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/purdue-global-law-school/policy-information/academic-information/#text>

Tuition, Fees, and Financial Aid

In addition to the information provided on the report form, you can also review the information at <https://www.purduegloballawschool.edu/tuition>

The Refund Policy can be reviewed in the catalog at <https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/purdue-global-law-school/policy-information/financial/>

Employment Outcomes

The employment data reported below was compiled from a survey of graduates of Purdue Global Law School's Juris Doctor program. Because Purdue Global Law School is required to report survey results for employment for each of the first three years after graduation, Purdue Global Law School is reporting survey results for its 2020 graduates.

Fifteen surveys were sent out and seven graduates responded, for an overall response rate of 47%. 86% of the respondents reported being currently employed. Of those that responded, 50% reported being employed in a position where a JD is required for their position and 50% reported that a JD was an advantage in their current position.
