

Top 20
PUBLIC UNIVERSITY

571,900+
ALUMNI

Great things to know about
RUTGERS

COMMITTED TO ACCESS AND ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE,
BUILDING A BELOVED COMMUNITY, AND SERVING THE COMMON GOOD

67,600+
STUDENTS

2.8 MILLION
ANNUAL PATIENT VISITS

2022

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey

Rutgers is a top national research university and New Jersey's preeminent public institution of higher education. An academic, health, and research powerhouse, Rutgers is a university of excellence and opportunity—a changemaker for the common good, locally and globally.

1766

Founded before the American Revolution, the nation's 8th oldest institution of higher education

Access to Life-Changing Education

Low or No Tuition Programs Income-based financial aid helps cover in-state tuition and fees and reduces student debt

Scarlet Promise Grants Need-based financial aid and emergency assistance supported by $14 million+ in donations, part of the broader Scarlet Promise Initiative

First-Generation Students 34 percent of first-year Rutgers students are first-generation college undergraduates

67,600+ students

Undergraduates: 48,040

Graduate Students: 19,580

#1 in R&D

Rutgers devoted $720 million to research and development in FY 2020, expending more in R&D than all other New Jersey universities and colleges combined, according to the latest National Science Foundation data

The Places They Go: Recent Grads

Hired By: Apple • Bloomberg • Bristol Myers Squibb • CNN • Deloitte • Facebook • General Motors • Goldman Sachs • Google • IBM • Intel • Johnson & Johnson • Lockheed Martin • L'Oréal • Merck • Microsoft • Prudential Financial • U.S. House of Representatives

Grad Schools: Columbia • Harvard • Johns Hopkins • MIT • NYU • Princeton • Rutgers • Stanford • University of Michigan • University of Oxford • University of Pennsylvania • Yale

Lifelong Learning

113,200+ continuing education students aged 4 to 100+ served annually

150+

Undergraduate Majors

400+

Graduate Programs

TOP 100

—Forbes: America's Best Large Employers

TOP 100

—Reuters: World's Most Innovative Universities

America's Leading Scientists and Scholars

- 125+ fellows: American Association for the Advancement of Science
- 71 members: National Academies (Sciences, Engineering, Medicine) and American Academy of Arts and Sciences
- 34 recipients: National Science Foundation CAREER Awards for promising early-career scientists
- 40,000+ scholarly publications: Authored or coauthored by faculty in recent five-year period

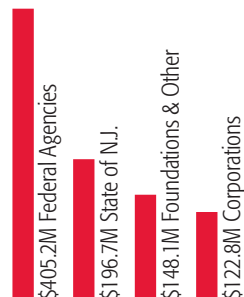

815,000+ news stories cited Rutgers in FY 2022

ABC • Associated Press • CBS • CNN • Financial Times • Forbes • MarketWatch • National Geographic • NBC • New York Times • NJ.com • NPR • Philadelphia Inquirer • The Record • Time • Wall Street Journal • Washington Post

$872.8 million

In Research Grants and Sponsored Programs (FY 2022)

Research Funding Awards by Source (FY 2022)

Research with Economic Impact

- 1,197 active patents (FY 2022)
- 94 active startups (FY 2022)
- 1,240 active technologies to license and market (FY 2022)
- 1,000+ companies engaged in research with Rutgers
- 300+ Rutgers research centers and institutes

Service to Strengthen Our Democracy

Rutgers President Jonathan Holloway is shown with the inaugural class of Rutgers Summer Service Internship students. Participants receive paid public service internships through this new presidential initiative designed to improve our democracy and advance the common good.

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey

Academics

DEGREES OFFERED

Associate's, Bachelor's, Master's, Doctoral, Professional, Certificate

DEGREES GRANTED

- 19,000+ in 2021–2022
- 674,900+ since founding

CONTINUING EDUCATION

- 255,000 total course enrollments annually
- 7,070 programs: certificates, certifications, professional and personal enrichment

25,000+

Undergraduate and graduate classes taught each year

Best 4 Vets

Military Times ranks Rutgers 13th in the nation among four-year institutions for student veterans services

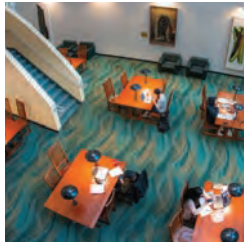

Students

ENROLLMENT (FALL 2022)

Total: 67,620
Women: 54%
Men: 46%

WHERE THEY COME FROM

All 21 N.J. counties • 50 states
• 120+ countries

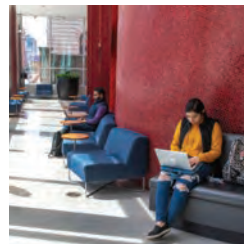

RACE/ETHNICITY (FULL-TIME ENROLLMENT)*

African American: 9.2%
American Indian: 0.1%
Asian: 26.9%
Hawaiian: 0.1%
Hispanic: 17.0%
International: 9.8%
Other: 2.0%
Two or more: 3.5%
White: 31.5%

*Figures reflect rounding

A Great Educational Value

The typical first-year, in-state Rutgers student paid less than 50 percent of the published tuition rate during academic year 2020–2021, through a combination of substantial financial aid from the university, with qualifying state and federal aid programs.

Costs

UNDERGRADUATE COSTS* Tuition, Fees, Room, and Board

- In-state: $30,172
- Out-of-state: $47,872

Tuition Only

- In-state: $12,900
- Out-of-state: $30,600

*2022–2023 typical costs for Rutgers–New Brunswick; figures vary by specific university, school, or college

Faculty & Staff

8,000+ full- and part-time faculty
14,100+ full- and part-time staff

Our Divisions

■ Rutgers University–New Brunswick

- Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy
- Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology
- Graduate School of Education
- Mason Gross School of the Arts
- Rutgers Business School–Newark and New Brunswick
- School of Arts and Sciences
- School of Communication and Information
- School of Engineering
- School of Environmental and Biological Sciences
- School of Graduate Studies
- School of Management and Labor Relations
- School of Social Work

■ Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences

- Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy
- New Jersey Medical School
- Robert Wood Johnson Medical School
- Rutgers School of Dental Medicine
- School of Graduate Studies
- School of Health Professions
- School of Nursing
- School of Public Health

■ Rutgers University–Newark

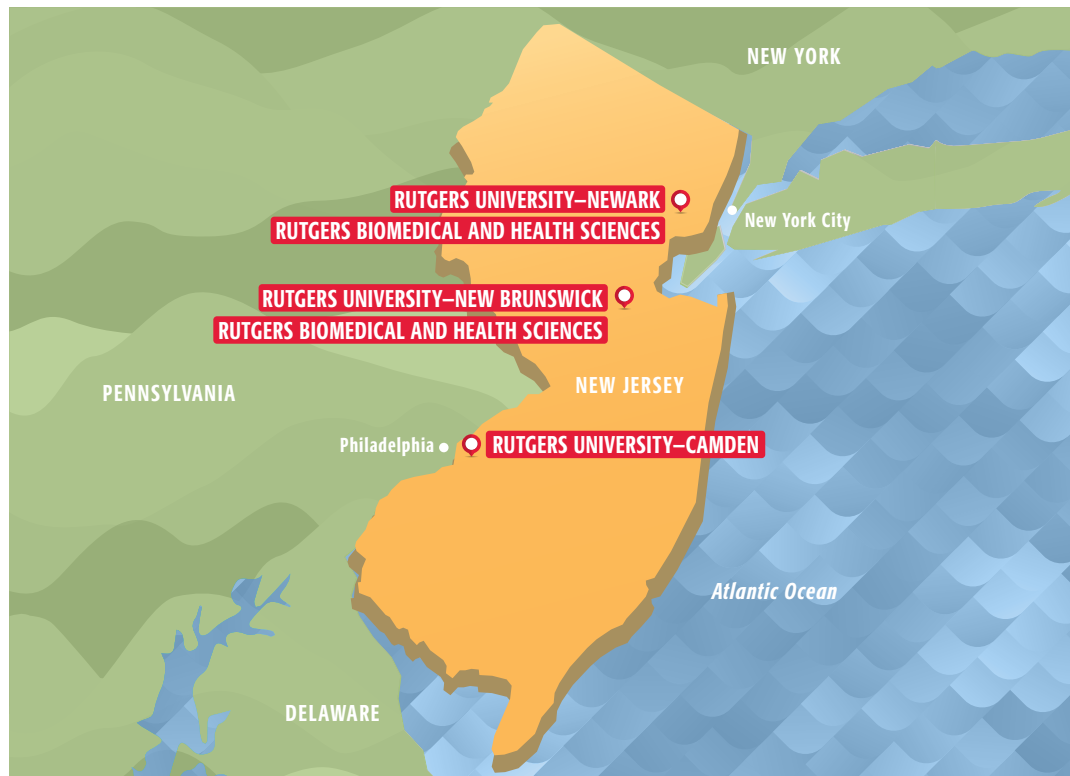

- Graduate School–Newark
- Rutgers Business School–Newark and New Brunswick
- Rutgers Law School
- School of Arts and Sciences–Newark
- School of Criminal Justice
- School of Public Affairs and Administration

■ Rutgers University–Camden

- Camden College of Arts and Sciences
- Graduate School–Camden
- Rutgers Law School
- School of Business–Camden
- School of Nursing–Camden
- University College–Camden

29 Schools & Colleges

Schools listed twice are units of both divisions

Rutgers University—New Brunswick

A top 100 world university, top 20 public national university, and number one public university in New Jersey. Boundless academic choices. World-class research and innovation. Outstanding students and faculty. Five campuses, from bucolic to bustling city. Big Ten, big-time Scarlet Knights sports.

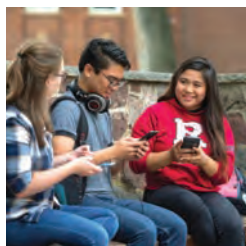

At a Glance

Total Enrollment: 43,859

Undergraduates: 34,141

Graduate Students: 9,718

Number of Schools: 12

“Thousands of Rutgers University students will benefit from a new financial aid program slashing out-of-pocket costs of tuition and fees for families with incomes below $100,000.”

—Yahoo!Finance on the

Scarlet Guarantee program, which reduces tuition and fees for first- and second-year full-time in-state undergraduates on a sliding income scale

20+ Programs Ranked in the Nation's Top 20

African American History • Agricultural Sciences • Art, Performing Arts, and Design • Arts and Humanities • Business-Supply Chain Logistics • Communication • Condensed Matter Physics • Cultural History • Discrete Mathematics and Combinatorics • Electrical and Electronic Engineering • English • Fine Arts—Painting and Drawing • Food Science and Technology • Library and Information Studies • Mathematics • Modern U.S. History • Oceanography • Philosophy • Social Work • Urban Planning • Women's History

- African American History
- Women's History

—U.S. News & World Report

BIG

Big Ten Scarlet Knights Excel in 2021–2022

- 419 make the Academic All-Big Ten List, a Rutgers record high
- 9 top-25 ranked teams: baseball; field hockey; gymnastics; wrestling; rowing; men's and women's soccer and lacrosse
- Football earns invitation to Gator Bowl
- Men's basketball defeats 5 ranked opponents and makes NCAA Tournament

#2

In the world

- Philosophy

—QS World University Rankings

#3

In the nation

- Food Science and Technology

—U.S. News & World Report

R

#1 in the Big Ten,
Upward Social
Mobility

—U.S. News & World Report

World Class Theater Program

Rutgers Conservatory at Shakespeare's Globe in London is the flagship school program of the Globe, bringing Rutgers Mason Gross School of the Arts students to the famed theater for a year of immersive learning.

Top Students, Top Prizes

■ GRAND CHAMPION: SCHULZE ENTREPRENEURSHIP CHALLENGE (E-FEST)

$50,000+ in seed money is helping a Rutgers Honors College team, above, develop its patented Nutrifier, a pacifier-like device that delivers medication and nutrients to infants, reducing complications from dosing inaccuracies.

■ NEWEST WINNERS: GOLDWATER SCHOLARS

Four outstanding School of Arts and Sciences students were named Barry Goldwater Scholars in 2022, extending to 17 years Rutgers' streak of students earning the nation's preeminent undergraduate research scholarship.

■ WINNER: EPA WILDFIRE CLEANER INDOOR AIR CHALLENGE

A $10,000 prize enables the multidisciplinary team to prototype a technology that keeps household air clean when wildfire smoke and other air pollutants reach unhealthy levels.

$10 million+

That's how much the Rutgers University Dance Marathon—the state's largest student-run philanthropic event—has raised since 1999 to meet the nonmedical needs of children and their families affected by cancer, sickle cell, and other diseases

Leading the Way: Center for American Women and Politics

The nation's go-to resource for insight on women in the political sphere, the center appears regularly in the national media. Led by Debbie Walsh, above, CAWP is celebrating its 50th anniversary.

Mean SAT score for incoming 2021 first-year Rutgers–New Brunswick students, well exceeding mean scores in New Jersey (1125) and the U.S. (1060)

“All the programs that are housed here, along with what this building represents, are the result of so many people caring about the mission of a better life for adults with autism.”

—Dina Karmazin Elkins of the Karma Foundation on the dedication of the Rutgers Center for Adult Autism Services Community Center, the nation's first university-based facility providing academic support, job training, and other services to adults with autism, while also preparing students for careers in support of this underserved population

Rutgers University—New Brunswick

“Historian Erica Dunbar, who played such an integral role in the production she was eventually promoted to co-executive producer, said you simply can’t do a show about New York without Black people.”

—Washington Post on Rutgers historian Erica Dunbar’s role in shaping HBO’s The Gilded Age, ensuring the show brought to life authentic characters of color who too often have been reduced to stereotypes or entirely overlooked in media portrayals of American history. Dunbar, right, also was a consultant and on-screen contributor to Ken Burns’ 2022 PBS documentary Benjamin Franklin. The Charles and Mary Beard Distinguished Professor of History, Dunbar leads the Rutgers Scarlet and Black Research Center and is national director of the Association of Black Women Historians.

Association of American Universities
Inquiry · Innovation · Impact

Rutgers—New Brunswick and Princeton are the only New Jersey schools in the Association of American Universities, whose 65 members are North America’s leading research universities

Our newest National Academy of Inventors Fellow, Yingying (Jennifer) Chen: Engineer and computer scientist with mobile computing and security inventions

Top Faculty, Top Honors

Institut Jean-Nicod Lectures and Prize, Frances Egan: Philosopher of cognitive science in the Rutgers Department of Philosophy, which is ranked second in the world

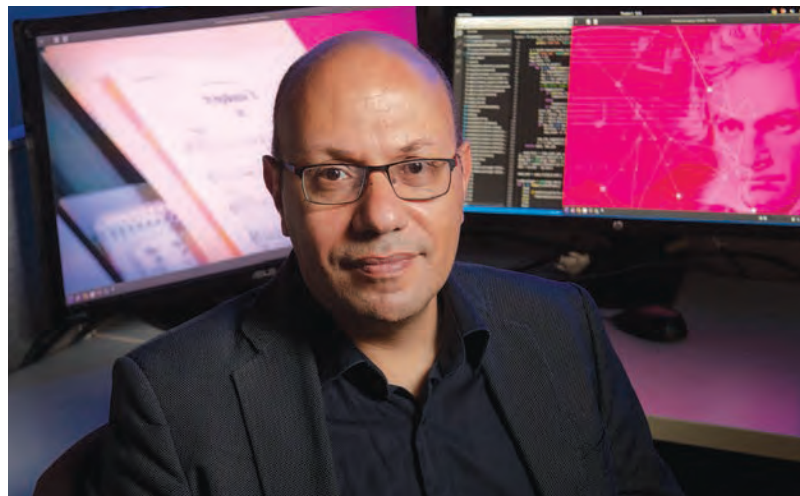

National Tax Association Holland Medal, Rosanne Althuler: Economist recognized for lifetime achievement in the study of public finance theory and practice

American Academy of Arts and Sciences, Gabriel Kotliar and Andre Szemerédi: Kotliar specializes in the fundamental physics of materials, such as superconductors and energy storage materials, and Szemerédi in mathematics fundamental to databases, artificial intelligence, and network security

The first at-home saliva test “is a breakthrough in a nation that has struggled to expand coronavirus testing.”

—Washington Post on May 2020 FDA approval of the COVID-19 test invented at Rutgers. Weeks earlier, the FDA approved the first clinically administered saliva test, another Rutgers invention.

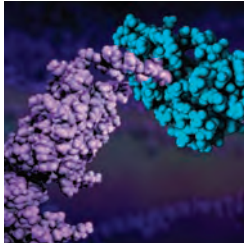

“Two centuries after the death of Ludwig van Beethoven, musicians and computer scientists used artificial intelligence to complete his 10th symphony... We [CNN] talked to the computer scientist in charge of the process, Professor Ahmed Elgammal [left] of Rutgers University, to find out how they trained the computer to write music as Beethoven might have.”

—Fareed Zakaria, CNN, GPS: The Next Big Idea

60K+

Works of art at the Zimmerli Art Museum

Essential Database

Key to medical and biological discovery, the Protein Data Bank is the world's only open-access, 3D digital archive for proteins, DNA, and RNA—life's basic molecules. PDB structures aided more than 70 percent of 54 anticancer drugs earning recent FDA approval.

TOP 100

World University

—Times Higher Education World Reputation Rankings

Only at Rutgers

■ UNLOCKING EARTH'S SECRETS: CENTER FOR OCEAN OBSERVING LEADERSHIP (RUCOOL)

The internationally acclaimed center develops and operates state-of-the-art ocean sensor technologies that capture comprehensive 4D views of the ocean, shedding light on hurricanes, climate change, fisheries, and more.

■ THOMAS A. EDISON PAPERS PROJECT

One of the most ambitious editing undertakings by an American university, a team of editors/scholars has been turning an incomparable trove of Edison documents into a premier educational resource since 1978.

■ BIG DATA = SAFETY AT BIG VENUES

With such partners as MetLife Stadium and Rutgers Office of Emergency Management, CCICADA, a U.S. Department of Homeland Security University Center of Excellence, uses big data to protect soft targets and crowded places.

Public University in the Nation

—U.S. News & World Report

#1

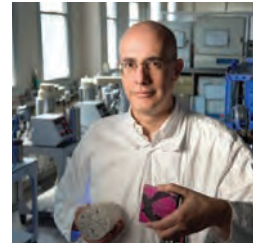

Public University in New Jersey

—U.S. News & World Report

Saving Our Vulnerable Sea Life

50 years on, the Rutgers University Marine Field Station, located on a pristine East Coast estuary, works to preserve the coastal ecosystem, sustain New Jersey sea life, and understand climate change.

“Meet the company taking on concrete’s carbon footprint. Solidia Technologies engineered a way to emit less CO2 in the most common manmade material on the planet.”

—Inc. Magazine on the Rutgers startup founded by materials scientist Richard Riman, above, and his research associate Vahit Atakan

As the state’s land-grant university, Rutgers–New Brunswick provides New Jersey’s 21 counties with expertise on everything from equine science and mosquito control to healthy eating and flood mitigation.

“I want to thank the researchers at Rutgers for their tireless efforts to create varieties of crops for us to survive.”

—John Vannini of Vannini Farms in Vineland, New Jersey, on the Rutgers New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station’s development of a basil variety resistant to an industry-crushing disease and better adapted to climate change, from the Rutgers-produced film Fields of Devotion

Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences

Rutgers prepares tomorrow's health care providers and conducts life-changing research at New Jersey's top schools for medicine, dentistry, nursing, pharmacy, public health, and health professions. And Rutgers Health, with partner RWJBarnabas Health, is New Jersey's leading academic health system, bringing practitioners and innovators together to make the world well.

At a Glance

Total Enrollment: 6,787

Undergraduates: 2,203

Graduate Students: 4,584

Number of Schools: 8

American Psychiatric Association President-Elect, Petros Levounis: Rutgers New Jersey Medical School's psychiatry chair is an expert in the treatment of substance use and technological addictions.

"Eileen White's laboratory focuses on mechanisms required for tumor cells and tumors to survive, proliferate, and evade surveillance by the immune system. The overall goal is to reveal novel approaches for cancer therapy."

—National Academy of Sciences on Rutgers' newest member. White, above left, is Board of Governors Professor of Molecular Biology and Biochemistry and Rutgers Cancer Institute of New Jersey's deputy director and chief scientific officer.

Medical Schools—Research • Nursing—Anesthesia • Nursing—D.N.P. • Nursing—Master's • Nursing—Midwifery • Pharmacy • Physical Therapy • Physician Assistant • Public Health • Rehabilitation Counseling

—U.S. News & World Report

450+
Clinical trials

Rutgers supports more than 450 clinical trials at any given time and was a COVID-19 clinical trials site for the Moderna, Pfizer, and Johnson & Johnson vaccines.

M.D. Grads Match at Top Hospitals

New Jersey Medical School and Robert Wood Johnson Medical School graduates serve as resident physicians at these and other top hospitals, treating patients as they continue specialized medical training: Johns Hopkins Hospital, Massachusetts General Hospital, Montefiore Medical Center, NYU Grossman School of Medicine, New York Presbyterian Hospital, RWJUH—New Brunswick, UCLA Medical Center, Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, Yale-New Haven Hospital.

First Open-Source Rapid Variant Test

The test to detect known COVID-19 variants was developed by David Alland and his team at New Jersey Medical School on an open-source basis, making the technology available to scientists worldwide.

New Jersey's Only Dental School

Rutgers School of Dental Medicine is the state's largest provider of oral health care, with 136,000+ annual patient visits.

Only at Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences

■ RUTGERS CANCER INSTITUTE OF NEW JERSEY

The state's only National Cancer Institute-designated Comprehensive Cancer Center, together with RWJBarnabas Health—providing premier cancer research and world-class patient care—will have a new home: the Jack and Sheryl Morris Cancer Center, the state's first freestanding cancer hospital.

■ FROM RESEARCH LAB TO PATIENT CARE

The statewide Institute for Translational Medicine and Science moves research discoveries into clinical practice and is the gateway to clinical trials at Rutgers, offering patients access to hundreds of new treatments.

■ HEALTH CARE FOR 9/11 SURVIVORS

The World Trade Center Health Program Clinical Center of Excellence—New Jersey's only WTC health center—provides care at no cost for patients with health conditions related to the 9/11 terror attacks.

RUTGERS HEALTH

Rutgers Health is Rutgers' clinical enterprise, offering exceptional patient care in coordination with RWJBarnabas Health, the state's largest integrated health care delivery system. With the latest research and innovations informing patient care, new treatments, and the training of practitioners, Rutgers Health is New Jersey's leading academic health care provider.

2.8 million+

Annual patient visits to our Rutgers Health practices

- $800.4 million annual spending on patient care
- 1,300+ clinical providers
- 20 N.J. towns and 12 N.J. counties with Rutgers Health offices

Top 20 in the Nation: School of Nursing

U.S. News & World Report ranks the School of Nursing's M.S.N. and D.N.P. programs in the nation's top 20 and #1 in New Jersey. Its B.S.N. program ranks in the nation's top 10 percent. The school is a National League for Nursing Center of Educational Excellence and an American Association of Men in Nursing Best School. The school's initiatives in health care and research range from the statewide Child Health Program to a midwifery training and research and development program in rural Nigeria.

Presidential Advisory Council on Combating Antibiotic-Resistant Bacteria Chair, Martin Blaser: Physician and microbiologist whose book Missing Microbes: How the Overuse of Antibiotics Is Fueling Our Modern Plagues raised awareness worldwide of the perils of antibiotic overuse.

Serving Veterans

Rutgers University Behavioral Health Care's Vets4Warriors Program: 24/7 confidential peer support to veterans, service members, family members, and caregivers.

Rutgers University–Newark

A leading urban research university. Internationally and nationally recognized scholarship. “In Newark, of Newark”—an anchor institution in the heart of New Jersey’s largest city. Minutes from midtown Manhattan. A university that propels economic prosperity and social mobility for each new generation.

At a Glance

Total Enrollment: 11,008

Undergraduates: 7,511

Graduate Students: 3,497

Number of Schools: 6

#1 Return on Investment among schools where more than 50 percent of students receive Pell Grants

—Colleges Where Low-Income Students Get the Highest ROI, Georgetown University Center on Education and the Workforce

No or Low Tuition, Increased Access

A major expansion to the Rutgers–Newark RU-N to the TOP scholarship program covers the cost of tuition and mandatory fees for more New Jersey students and caps the cost at $5,000 a year for families with household incomes of $100,000 or below based on a sliding scale.

Top Tier Debate Team

The debate team, perennially ranked among the nation’s best, hosted two major national tournaments in 2022, the Brick City Round Robin and the Rutgers University–Newark Invitational.

Top 10

In the Nation: Upward Social Mobility and Diversity

- Washington Monthly: Social Mobility
- U.S. News & World Report: Social Mobility and Diversity
- Wall Street Journal/Times Higher Education: Diversity of Students and Faculty

Pulitzer Prize in Criticism: Salamishah Tillet

Honored for her “learned and stylish writing about Black stories in art and popular culture—work that successfully bridges academic and nonacademic discourse,” Tillet, right, is a New York Times contributing critic at large; Henry Rutgers Professor of African American Studies and Creative Writing; and executive director of Express Newark, the Rutgers–Newark-supported academic and community center for socially engaged art and design.

- Criminology Programs
- Public Affairs–Urban Planning and Policy Programs

—U.S. News & World Report

Revolutionizing Honors

Called an “honors college that honors grit” by The New York Times, the Honors Living-Learning Community looks beyond grades and test scores to find academic talent.

Poems that “emanate a radiant kindness.” —The Nation, reviewing poet, MacArthur fellow, and Distinguished Professor John Keene’s Punks, winner of the 2022 Lambda Literary Award for Gay Poetry and 2022 National Book Award finalist for poetry

National Award for Outstanding Recent Grad

Rutgers–Newark graduate Mussab Ali, left, who in 2017 became the nation’s youngest Muslim elected official after winning a seat on the Jersey City school board, won a Paul & Daisy Soros Fellowship for New Americans to help him complete his studies at Harvard Law School. He previously was awarded highly competitive Truman and Schwarzman scholarships.

An Anchor Institution in Newark

■ WHITE HOUSE RECOGNIZES RUTGERS LAW SCHOOL

Faculty and students of the Stop Evicting Newark Project, above, were invited by the White House to recount their exemplary pro bono efforts to halt pandemic evictions in the city.

■ STUDYING HIGH-RISK DEMENTIA POPULATIONS

Partnering with churches and other Greater Newark organizations, the Aging and Brain Health Alliance at Rutgers studies populations with elevated dementia risk—especially African Americans, whose Alzheimer’s disease rates are especially high.

■ MANAGEMENT EDUCATION FOR ECONOMIC PROSPERITY

The Center for Urban Entrepreneurship and Economic Development’s (CUEED) Ascend Newark program, funded by JPMorgan Chase and Prudential Financial, provides management education to Black and Latinx entrepreneurs, building wealth and inclusion in the tech sector.

■ INVESTING IN BLACK AND LATINX ENTREPRENEURS

Launched and operated by CUEED, the Black and Latino Angel Investment Fund works with investors committed to supporting New Jersey startups and growth companies owned by people of color.

200,000

That’s how many recordings are housed in the Institute of Jazz Studies. The New York Times calls the institute the “country’s most extensive jazz archive and library.”

A STEP Forward: From Prison to College

Headquartered at Rutgers–Newark and active in most of the state’s prisons, NJ-STEP is a national model for helping incarcerated students earn college degrees.

National Expert on Race, Place, and Inequality, David Troutt: Distinguished Professor of Law; Center on Law, Inequality and Metropolitan Equity (CLiME) director. His housing scarcity and affordability index is behind Newark’s Equitable Growth Advisory Commission.

Rutgers University Brain Imaging Center (RUBIC):

The state-of-the-art MRI facility enables researchers to conduct studies with advanced technology for eye-tracking and physiological data collection, aural and visual stimulus presentations, and more.

Scarlet Raiders Champs:

In 2022, the men’s basketball team captured the Division III Eastern College Athletic Conference championship for the first time since 1996.

Rutgers University–Camden

World-class research. Transformational community partnerships. Just across the Delaware River from Philadelphia. The Rutgers experience, traditions, and prestige in a personalized, close-knit environment. That's Rutgers University–Camden.

At a Glance

Total Enrollment: 5,966

Undergraduates: 4,185

Graduate Students: 1,781

Number of Schools: 6

Alumni employed or in graduate school

Camden Career Center Outcomes Report, Class of 2021 survey respondents, 6 months postgraduation

"In Patrick Rosal's Poetry, Physical Exuberance Takes Flight"

—The New York Times reviewing The Last Thing, the latest poetry collection from Patrick Rosal, Rutgers–Camden M.F.A. creative writing professor and National Endowment for the Arts and Guggenheim fellow

Access and Financial Aid for Student Success

With its new Minority Serving Institution designation from the U.S. Department of Education, Rutgers–Camden will be better equipped than ever to ensure that the most disadvantaged students receive increased access to a Rutgers education.

Bridging the Gap is a game-changing financial aid program that enables in-state students with family incomes below $65,000 to attend the university tuition-free and reduces tuition and fees for students with family incomes below $100,000.

N.J. Gov. Phil Murphy honored Rutgers–Camden with the We Value Our Veterans Award for its many educational, financial, and other services for former military personnel.

Great Students, Great Futures

■ Doaa Ouf: Honors College graduate, animation and theater double major is now an M.F.A. student at the David Geffen School of Drama at Yale in the new field of projection design

■ Cleo Falvey: Doctoral student and National Science Foundation Research Fellow combines studies of reptiles and amphibians with genomic data to answer large-scale evolutionary questions that advance our understanding of how animals adapt to climate change

■ Kristen Smith: Inaugural forensic science master's program graduate, inventor of white-based fluorescent fingerprint powder, which allows it to be visible both with and without an external light source

#20

In the nation,
Upward Social Mobility

—*Washington Monthly
College Guide*

#15

In the northeast,
Best Bang for the Buck

—*Washington Monthly
College Guide*

1st

- Ph.D. in Childhood Studies in the Nation
- M.S. in Forensic Science in New Jersey
- Certificate in Immigration Law in New Jersey
- Purple Heart University in New Jersey

For her paper illuminating the history of the Detroit Housewives League, historian Kendra Boyd received the Letitia Woods Brown Article Prize from the Association of Black Women Historians.

“Eds & Meds” Lifts Camden

■ “KUDOS FOR CAMDEN COLLABORATION” —NEW JERSEY BUSINESS MAGAZINE

Rutgers–Camden, Rowan University, and Camden County College joined forces to build the $73 million Joint Health Sciences Center in Camden’s downtown. The center is a cornerstone of the “Eds and Meds Corridor” that is leading the city’s revitalization.

■ INSIDE CAMDEN’S FIGHT TO VACCINATE THE MOST VULNERABLE

School of Nursing–Camden professor Kevin Emmons led the charge to vaccinate hard-to-reach residents, hosting COVID-19 vaccine pop-up clinics in public housing complexes, aided by nursing students and Camden County staff. The nursing school is a National League for Nursing Center of Excellence.

200,000+

Number of hours Rutgers–Camden students devote annually to civic engagement

“Rutgers Law School has launched a statewide project to help exonerate people convicted of crimes they did not commit.”

—WHYY on the Rutgers–Camden-based New Jersey Innocence Project

Political scientist Kelly Dittmar is a widely sought-after national expert on gender and American political institutions.

A World’s Best 40 Under 40 Business Professor

“With about 850 Google Scholar citations, Dwertmann is one of our top publishers to be included in this year’s list.”

—Poets & Quants on School of Business–Camden associate professor of management David Dwertmann, whose research focuses on diversity and inclusion (e.g., people with disabilities and immigrants in the workplace), social norms, and leadership. He partners with organizations for his work on these topics.

Scarlet Raptor Wins 2nd National Title

Jude Misko claimed his second consecutive national title in the hammer throw at the 2022 NCAA Division III Outdoor Track & Field Championship.

Rutgers Alumni

Members of Rutgers' global alumni community work in every field of human endeavor, leaving their mark wherever they go. From steering Fortune 500 companies to advancing life-changing research to serving in the public sector, Rutgers alumni improve the human condition.

R ALUMNI

More than 60 percent of Rutgers alumni live in New Jersey, fueling the region's economy.

Rutgers alumni live in all 50 states and the District of Columbia, in four U.S. territories, and on six continents.

97 alumni organizations worldwide

Sheryl Lee Ralph ('75) The actor, singer, author, and activist earned an Emmy for her role in ABC's breakout hit Abbott Elementary and a Tony nomination for Broadway's Dreamgirls.

Alumni Are Leaders

Keith Banks ('77) (left) Vice Chair and Chief Investment Officer, Bank of America

Mary DiMartino ('85) Executive Director, JPMorgan Securities

Frank Giordano ('72) Executive Director, U.S. Semiquincentennial Commission (America 250)

Anne Milgram ('92) Administrator, U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration

Judith Persichilli ('76) Commissioner, New Jersey Department of Health

Fabiana Pierre-Louis ('06) (right) Associate Justice, New Jersey Supreme Court

Good Company: Organizations Led by Rutgers Alumni, Past and Present

Avon • Bank of America • Bloomberg, L.P. • Bristol Meyers Squibb • Central Park Conservancy • ConAgra • ESPN • FBI • FCC • Federal Highway Administration • Ford Motor Company • GEICO • GLAXO • Goldman Sachs • Home Depot • JPMorgan Chase • Johnson & Johnson • Kohl's • Merck • Motorola Solutions • NBA • Prudential • Raytheon • Rock & Roll Hall of Fame • Sanofi Pharmaceuticals • Turner Construction • UPS • U.S. DEA

571,900+ alumni

“I’m fiercely proud of Rutgers. It’s a wonderful university with so many positive attributes: tradition, pride, quality, diversity, and opportunity. But what makes Rutgers so special is the people.” —Greg Brown ('82), Chair and CEO, Motorola Solutions

■ Eric LeGrand ('14) Entrepreneur, football commentator, motivational speaker, and advocate and fundraiser for the spinal cord injury community

■ Micaiah Johnson ('16) Author of The Space Between Worlds, a New York Times Editor's Choice novel

■ Lavett Ballard ('14) (above) Time magazine commissioned the artist's work for its 100 Women of the Year special issue

■ Dylan Dreyer ('03) The NBC News meteorologist is also the co-host of NBC's 3rd Hour Today.

■ Jennifer Robertson ('97) The keeper of the Big Cat Falls exhibit at the Philadelphia Zoo, Robertson educates the public about the plight of these animals in the wild.

■ Bimpé Fageyinbo ('12,'18) Poet, filmmaker, photographer with works in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Library, Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, and Library of Congress

■ Derrick Fondaco ('16) Unilever R&D manager for ice cream: Ben & Jerry's, Breyer's, Good Humor, Klondike, Popsicle

■ Sebastian Stan ('05) Emmy-nominated actor. Among major roles: Tommy Lee, Hulu's Pam and Tommy; Bucky Barnes (the Winter Soldier), Marvel Cinematic Universe

■ Corinne Bradley-Powers ('79) Restaurateur and owner of Corinne's Place, 2022 James Beard Foundation America's Classics Award winner

■ Amber Cargill ('09) Psychologist and NFL Players Association director of player wellness

■ Lauren O'Brien ('22) Lead researcher, the Joseph Moore Project, Tenement Museum in Manhattan's Lower East Side

■ Kathy Ryan ('78) Director of photography, The New York Times Magazine

■ Cynthia Rosenzweig ('80,'83) NASA scientist, 2022 World Food Prize winner—the “Nobel for food and agriculture”

■ Natalie Morales ('94) An award-winning journalist, Morales is a correspondent with CBS News covering stories for 48 Hours, CBS Morning, and CBS Sunday Morning and co-hosts The Talk, CBS's Daytime Emmy Award-winning talk show.

■ Christopher Markus ('91) Film producer and screenwriter whose credits include Marvel's Captain America and Avengers series

■ Igor Alves ('04,'08) Co-founder and managing producer of DreamPlay Media, an Emmy Award-winning film and creative media company

■ Steven Gomez ('01,'10) Taco Bell's head of global engineering and leader of its International Food Innovation Team

Rutgers Giving Community

Philanthropy in Support of Rutgers Causes

Donors make Rutgers' excellence possible. They fund access to higher education, the advancement of our beloved community, and research in service to the common good.

At a Glance

$215 million: Total giving in 2021–2022

46,300+: Rutgers donors in 2021–2022

$87 million: Giving in support of Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences in 2021–2022

The Scarlet Promise Initiative helps ensure student success before, during, and after Rutgers. Answering President Jonathan Holloway's $50 million challenge to support the program, 9,744 alumni and friends gave $23.4 million to 1,300+ Scarlet Promise Initiative programs in the last year alone.

The first 100 Rutgers Summer Service Internship students served in public-service internships in 2022. Within six months of President Holloway's announcement of the program, donors contributed a collective $1.5 million to support it.

Endowment

$1.8 Billion

Supporting Our Beloved Community

■ Led by founding and executive director Michelle Stephens, above, the Institute for the Study of Global Racial Justice brings humanistic methods to bear on critical issues. Following the $15 million Andrew W. Mellon Foundation grant that launched the institute, additional donors include the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, whose $725,000 grant is funding Black Bodies, Black Health.

■ The Rutgers Youth Behavioral Health Initiative delivers compassionate, evidence-based services to young people thanks to an initial $30 million commitment from Marlene Brandt ('80). Following the 2021 groundbreaking for the Brandt Behavioral Health and Treatment Center, work continues to fund the initiative's full vision.

■ Translating cutting-edge research into revolutionary therapies, the Cancer Immunology and Metabolism Center of Excellence at Rutgers Cancer Institute of New Jersey began with a $25 million anonymous gift. More than 3,000 donors gave $6.3 million to the institute last year.

■ The Maida Public Interest Fellowships have sponsored more than 240 Rutgers Law School fellows contributing 90,000 pro bono hours to homelessness policy, youth incarceration, fair housing, and more. James ('90) and Sharon ('97) Maida make the program possible, contributing $1.84 million since 2015.

■ Rutgers–Newark and financial services technology provider Fiserv, Inc., are creating the Fiserv-RU-N Program for Inclusive Innovation—a center that includes an innovation lab, fintech research, support for local entrepreneurs, annual scholarships, and student preparation for jobs and internships. Fiserv is funding the program with a $5.15 million gift.

■ The joint initiative in Population and Prevention Sciences, funded by Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's $4 million grant, supports the Child Health Institute of New Jersey and the Division of Population Health, Quality, and Implementation Sciences of the Department of Pediatrics.

Great Things to Know About Rutgers

Committed to Access and Academic Excellence, Building a Beloved Community, and Serving the Common Good

Explore more in our digital version with videos, media stories, enhanced content, and the latest and greatest things to know about Rutgers.

greatthings.rutgers.edu

Data current as of September 15, 2022

© Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, 2022

RU-2122-0049/35M

Produced by the Rutgers Department of University Communications and Marketing

Photography: Douglas Benedict, Bill Cardoni, Anthony Colello, Cesare De Giglio, Ron Downes Jr., Robert Essel, Mel Evans, Tamara Fleming, Roy Groething, Don Hamerman, Heavy Content Studios Inc., Jonathan Kolbe, Larry McAllister, Asia Norton, John O'Boyle, Jillian Prior, Nick Romanenko, Ben Solomon, Nina Subin, Maria Voight/RCSB/Protein Data Bank. Getty Images: Nathan Congleton/NBC Universal, Phillip Faraone, Sonja Fleming/CBS, Pamela Littky/ABC. Additional photography courtesy of: Philadelphia Zoo, Rutgers-Camden Athletics, Rutgers-Newark Athletics, Rutgers-Newark Honors Living-Learning Community, Rutgers-New Brunswick School of Arts and Sciences/Thomas A. Edison Papers Project, Rutgers-New Brunswick School of Environmental and Biological Sciences/Fields of Devotion/First Run Features, Taco Bell Corp., World Food Prize Foundation/Kisha Bari

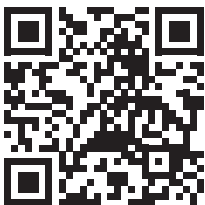

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy, gender identity or expression, disability, age, genetic information, atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait, marital status, civil union status, domestic partnership status, military service, veteran status, or any other category covered by law in its admission, programs, activities, or employment matters. The following people have been designated to handle inquiries regarding the nondiscrimination policies: Judy Ryan, Universitywide Title IX Coordinator, University Ethics and Compliance (732-235-5304, judy.ryan@rutgers.edu); and Lisa Grosskreutz, Director, Office of Employment Equity, University Human Resources (848-932-3973, lisa.grosskreutz@rutgers.edu). For further information on the notice of nondiscrimination, you may contact the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights, at 646-428-3900 or OCR.NewYork@ed.gov

Department of University Communications and Marketing
Alexander Johnston Hall
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey
101 Somerset Street
New Brunswick, NJ 08901-1281

rutgers.edu

Explore more great things to know about Rutgers in our digital version

greatthings.rutgers.edu