Severance Lodge Club, on Kezar Lake

Celebrating 50 years

1970 – 2020

A brief timeline of Severance Tradition

April 23, 1935 – ice out

Brown's Camp of Lake Kezar opens under the direction of Harold & William Severance

Summer, 1935 – 1940

Traditions of Brown's Camps sustained and enhanced

Saturday, October 7, 1939

Marriage of Lucille K. Day and Harold E. Severance,
The perfect team to build a resort known nationwide

Spring 1940

Harold acquires full ownership of Brown's Camps which he eventually names Severance Lodge

1940s – the War Years – plus

Organized and not so organized chaos held Severance Lodge together during the war.

The concept of Lodge vs camps required significant growth and change.

A lodge of excellence grew as the Chalet, Tam Glen and Everbreeze were added to Severance Lodge.

1960 – 1969 – Severance Lodge

Woodsmoke from Severance Lodge becomes the annual newsletter to spread the life at Severance Lodge both to returning guests and to curious newcomers enthusiastically wanting to stay at the lodge. Returning guests filled the lodge throughout the season with always a few new faces.

1970 – the birth of Severance Lodge Club

Harold and Lucille establish the residential club. The appeal of Severance Lodge Club was the ongoing presence of Severance Lodge tradition at home.
