A ROYAL RESORT DESTINATION, HUA HIN IS THAILAND'S ORIGINAL BEACH GETAWAY AND IS HOME TO TWO SUMMER PALACES BUILT BY RAMA VI (KING VAJIRAVUDH). THE NAME OF ONE OF THEM – PHRA RATCHAWANG KLAJ KANGWON – TRANSLATES TO “PALACE FAR FROM WORRIES.”

WHAT TO DO IN HUA HIN

Hua Hin balances beachside seclusion with national parkland, markets, restaurants and fun, family-friendly diversions.

There's Khao Sam Roi Yod National Park with its towering limestone mountains, or Phraya Nakhon cave, home to the famous Kuha Karuhas pavilion. There are water parks, theme parks, museums and galleries. There are also art markets and night bazaars where you can try local snacks and pick up unique Hua Hin mementos. For a touch of history, head to Mrigadayavan Palace, a holiday villa of King Vajiravudh (Rama VI) - 16 beautiful teak buildings, located close to the resort.

A regular shuttle service operates between the resort and Hua Hin throughout the day.

CLIMATE

Hua Hin has a tropical wet and dry climate with high levels of humidity and heavy rainfall during the September-to-November monsoon season.

Average year-round temperature is 30°C.

FORMALITIES

Passports must be valid six months after the date of return. Certain nationalities may require a visa to enter. Please check with your local Thai embassy for more information.

ACCESS

Bangkok's Suvarnabhumi International Airport is located 200 kilometers from the resort and can be accessed by the resort transfer service, shuttle buses and taxis.
