

I've got a main round offer - what do I do now?

What you're thinking

What you need to do

In the 2nd round

I'm happy with the main round offer! Let's get started.

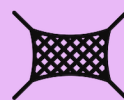

Accept the offer by the deadline to avoid losing it. You may enrol or defer.

No 2nd round offer because you already accepted your place.

I have a 1st preference offer but I'd like to try for something else.

Don't accept the offer. Move this course to a lower position on your list.

You'll either get offered a higher preference, or get a new offer for the same course.

I have a 2nd-6th preference offer & still want to try for a higher preference.

Don't accept the offer. Leave this course in the same place or move it lower.

You'll either get offered a higher preference, or get a new offer for the same course.

I don't want my offered course at all & want to be considered for other courses.

Don't accept the offer. Remove this course from your list.

Your 1st round offer is gone. You may or may not receive a 2nd round offer.

This symbol indicates the TISC Automatic Safety Net. If you follow these instructions you are assured of a second round offer.

This symbol indicates there is a risk you will end up with no second round offer.