Inquiry & Exploration Learning (IEL) — Students explore and solve real-world problems collaboratively in class with instructor guidance. Homework is completed online outside of class. In-class workbook and tests are on paper. Classes taught in this format: Math 0950, 0970 and 1010. Look for courses labeled "IEL" in the course title. (Formerly named R.E.A.L.)

Mastery-Based Learning (MBL) — Take notes from videos or the textbook outside of class and collaboratively work on homework in class with instructor guidance. The videos, textbook, homework, quizzes and tests are all online. Classes taught in this format: Math 0950, 0990 and 1010. Look for courses labeled "MBL" in the course title. (Formerly named Flipped)

Online (ONL) — Online classes are mastery-based learning and completed entirely online with no face-to-face class meetings. All materials are online. Computerized quizzes and tests must be proctored in an approved location. Classes taught in this format: Math 0950, 0990 and 1010.
