MOSTYN LAW'S HEAD OF LITIGATION AND SENIOR ASSOCIATE ACCEPTED BY NEW YORK STATE BAR

Head of Litigation and Senior Associate Rene Sigman has been accepted by the New York State Bar Association.

HOUSTON, TEXAS - JULY 23, 2014 - Head of Litigation and Senior Associate at Mostyn Law, Rene Sigman was accepted by the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) last Thursday and can now begin practicing law in the state of New York. The yearlong process included a lengthy application and a look into Sigman's legal work, non-legal work and personal life. The New York State Bar Association includes over 76,000 members, with 18,000 members residing out of state. Sigman's acceptance to the NYSBA means that she can now handle litigation for clients in New York on behalf of Mostyn Law.

"It was a long and thorough process, but I am thrilled to have been accepted by the New York State Bar Association and I look forward to practicing law in the state," said Sigman. "Just like in Texas, I will continue to fight for the rights of our clients and zealously represent their cause."

Sigman has been employed with Mostyn Law since 2001. She is a Senior Associate with the firm and is also Head of Litigation. Ms. Sigman has handled thousands of First Party Litigation cases against insurance companies since her employment with the firm, all of which have been tried or settled. She has trial experience and has tried cases, including First Party Bad Faith and Underinsured Motorist (UIM) cases against insurance companies. Ms. Sigman has also handled personal injury cases, predatory lending practices cases against mortgage companies, and construction defect cases. She has been named to the Super Lawyers, Texas Rising Star list consecutively since 2010 to the present.

In addition to her work at the firm, Sigman was an Adjunct Professor at South Texas College of Law from 2005 to 2008, teaching Mock Trial Litigation under South Texas's Advocacy Director and Associate Dean T. Gerald Treece. She has always been active in the advocacy program at South Texas College of Law and continues to support the program.
